All-Out Red Attack Smashing at Allies

HUSBAND AGAINST THE NICE QUIET LIFE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 15.—(UP)—Mrs. Mary Sehi told a divorce court judge yesterday that her husband, Frank, had two radios and two television sets and played them all at the same time.

She won the decree.

Rail Strikers Face Contempt Charges

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The government today moved to punish striking railroad yard workers.

Attorney-General Howard McGrath announced the government will bring contempt proceedings against the yardmen, who are striking in Chicago and many other key centres of the United States despite court orders issued in Chicago, Washington and Cleveland.

Successful contempt action could lead to heavy fines against the union.

The strikers continued to ignore the court orders. The strike was spreading. It hi home front mail deliveries — particularly parcels—even harder. Today it struck at express.

EXPRESS EMBARGO

The Railway Express Agency, Inc., announced an embargo on all shipments in and out of Chicago and St. Louis today. Exempt were drugs, hospital supplies, funeral supplies and government shipments. The agency said a partial embargo is in effect in Washington.

The union, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is seeking a 40-hour week at 48 hours pay for its yard workers.

The strike already had affected vital shipments of freight and mail, and slowed the industrial output.

The Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company said today one of its 12 blast furnaces at Gary, Ind., had been shut down and four others may be affected shortly. In the company's south works in Chicago, four blast furnaces also have been shut down and remained down today.

PARCEL POST CUT

The post office department last night clamped a partial embargo on parcel post mailing.

The new postal restrictions are not expected to have any appreciable immediate effect on Canada. W. J. Turnbull, deputy post master general, said in Ottawa that Canadian post offices will not impose any embargo on mail going to the U.S., "unless we are asked to do so by U.S. postal authorities."

The order came after the strike had "effectively crippled the mail distribution system."

Four Charged After Beating Of Old Man

Four persons—three men and a woman—have been charged with robbery with violence following the severe beating of an aged North Edmonton man last night.

The quartet, Adeline Graham, Olaf Petterson, John Popeck and Reuben Reay, appeared before Magistrate S. G. Main today in police court and were remanded without plea till Dec. 22.

They are charged with beating Alex Petro, 68, of 13607-64 street, in his home.

Petro suffered two deep cuts to his head, each requiring four stitches, a badly bruised eye, a possible fractured nose and shoulder injuries. He is being detained in Royal Alexandra Hospital.

STAGGERED TO HOME

Police said that Petro staggered to the home of a neighbor, Mike Nimchuk, 6410-136 avenue and asked him to call police. Nimchuk hailed a passing cab who relayed the information to police.

Police found Petro, a market gardener, lying on his bed blood-spattered and in a state of shock. He was bleeding badly. His assailants had disappeared and police took him to hospital.

Three persons, Graham, Petterson and Popeck were found in a downtown cafe a few hours later and taken to the station for questioning. They were then arrested and charged with robbery with violence.

The third man, Reuben Reay, known only to his companions as "Red" was arrested later by officers making checks on a downtown cafe. He was also charged.

Republicans Ask For Ouster Of Dean Acheson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Republicans of the House of Representatives today adopted a resolution calling for the ouster of State Secretary Dean Acheson.

The action was taken at a closed meeting of House party members. Republican leaders said the resolution was approved "overwhelmingly."

The resolution will be taken to President Truman.

In addition to asking for Acheson's replacement, it urges c'hanges in the personnel and policies responsible for this lack of confidence in the state department.

Enemy Hits Deeper Into UN Beachhead

By Earnest Hoberecht

TOKYO, Dec. 15 — (UP) — The Chinese Communists drove the U.S. 10th Corps deeper into its tiny Hamhung-Hungnam beachhead today in an all-out offensive to wipe out the last United Nations forces in northeastern Korea.

Some 2,500 Chinese Reds hit the U.S. 3rd Division eight miles west of Hamhung under cover of a snowstorm in the initial assault against the shrinking northeast coast beachhead.

At least one 3rd Division platoon was overrun and presumed lost.

By late today, 10th Corps forces had pulled back a short distance to new positions under steadily-increasing Communist attack. Exact extent of the withdrawal was not disclosed.

One front-line source predicted that the Reds would throw at least nine of the 12 to 14 Chinese divisions massed around the beachhead perimiter into the battle by late tonight. A full strength, the 14 divisions would total 140,000 men.

"This attack is in force," a 10th corps spokesman said. "It is not one of the probing attacks which have searched out probabilities of the perimeter border in the last three days. That's all we can tell you now."

As the battle mounted in fury, tanks were rushed to the heaviest-engaged areas west of Hamhung to reinforce armored units already in action.

BUSY AT DEMOLITIONS

Throughout the beachhead allied demolition sqbads were busy, destroying supplies and bridges.

Whether or how long the beachhead could withstand the assault was not known. The Chinese have boasted that they intend to smash that last allied foothold in northeast Korea and drive the survivors into the Sea of Japan.

But U.S. officers at the front said yesterday they could hold the line indefinitely against enemy forces up to 10 times their strength.

The defending 10th corps originally comprised some 60,000 men of the U.S. 1st marine and 3rd and 7th infantry divisions and the South Korean 3rd and capitol divisions. How many remain in the beachhead is a military secret.

The allies have the backing of U.S. warships lying off the coast and both land and carrier-based planes, but the snowstorm cut down initial support.

Firm Sure Of Alta. Gas, Surveys Line

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 15—(AP)—Trans-Northwest Gas Inc., confident it will get natural gas from fields in Alberta, will start today to lay out the actual route for its proposed pipeline in Idaho and eastern Washington.

The Spokane corporation still doesn't have definite assurances Alberta will export the fuel. But a company spokesman said the "possibilities have encouraged us to the extent of making final plans."

Trans-Northwest has a permit to lay the pipe in the state of Idaho. A similar application is pending in Washington state.

Burl C. Hagadone, vice-president in charge of Idaho operations, announced the route survey.

POSSIBLE IN 1952

He said it may be possible to have natural gas in key defence areas of Washington and Idaho by the summer of 1952.

"Our company is planning special emphasis on natural gas for the atomic energy plants at both Arco, Idaho and Hanford, Wash.," he said.

Hagadone called the route survey "the beginning of the final engineering for the project."

Young Girl Gets Request Fulfilled

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee took time off from the worries of state today to send a little American girl a sprig of heather.

The heather will go by air to Heather Ann Nordheimer, eight, of East Orange, N.J.

The dollar Heather Ann mailed the prime minister has been turned over to the British Girl Guides. They will spend it on a present for some guide who chances to be ill during the Christmas holidays.

Heather Ann sent Attlee the dollar with a request for a sprig of her namesake shrub after reading that he wore one for luck on his trip to North America last week.

Charge Of Murder Laid

QUEBEC, Dec. 15—(CP)—Mrs. Arthur Pitre, 42-year-old sister of Genereux Ruest and associate of J. Albert Guay, today was charged with murder in connection with an airline disaster that took 23 lives in September 1949.

The big, hard-voiced woman sobbed into a handkerchief as the court clerk intoned the act of accusation, a preferred indictment signed by Premier Duplessis as attorney-general of the province.

Her trial was fixed for Feb. 12 after she was arraigned.

The accusation read that she was an accomplice of Guay and Ruest in the time-bombing of the Canadian Pacific Airlines plane Sept. 9, 1949.

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 15—(CP)—H. H. Currie, 71, former managing editor of the Nelson Daily News, died last night at his home here. He retired in October, 1949.

Rat Invasion Claimed Here, Pest Control Men Named

Evidence that rats are moving well into Alberta has been discovered by Alberta agriculture department officials and pest control officers.

At Wanham, in the Peace River district of Alberta, trace of a rat, living under an elevator in the town has been found. The animal has not been caught.

Bait has been set out in an effort to catch another rat reported to be in the basement of a home at Michichi, north of Drumheller.

A cat or a dog is believed to have killed a rat at Wetaskiwin where the half eaten carcass was found by officials.

A live rat has been seen at the Imperial Oil refinery at Clover Bar, near Edmonton, but efforts to catch it have been unsuccessful.

Live rats have been found in box cars on two occasions recently at Drumheller, and dead rats have been found in box cars at Duchess and at Greenshields, near Wainwright. At Greenshields there were nine dead rats found in the same box car.

Provincial department of agriculture officials said today 90 pest control officers have been appointed in municipalities, towns and cities in Alberta, but there are nearly 200 communities where no appointment has been made.

They stressed the importance of appointing local pest control officers immediately so that plans for combatting the influx of rats into Alberta can be completed.

Rats have moved steadily across Canada on a westward march for many years, and the main body is now believed to be at the Alberta-Saskatchewan border and menacing Alberta, the only province in Canada previously free of rats.

Department of Agriculture officials will assist communities in planning control and prevention measures, and will provide rat poison bait if requested to do so.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS flight begins for 15 army gunners injured in Canoe River train wreck Nov. 21. Medical orderlies carefully lift injured soldier from army ambulance into waiting Dakota for flight east to spend Christmas with family. Flight, special gift from army, will stop off tonight in Winnipeg, then fly to Toronto, Montreal and Halifax and St. John's, Newfoundland. Today at Edmonton's airport, the men—high in spirits despite their injuries—echoed sentiments of one of their buddies when he said: "Best Christmas present I ever had. Never thought I'd see home for a long time."

HAPPY TROOPER chats with pretty army nurse aboard RCAF Dakota as they wait for plane to take off carrying them to their homes in eastern Canada for Christmas. Flt. Lt. Grace Davies listens as Bombardier Tommy Smith of Toronto tells of the reception he'll get. "I'm the furthest from home, but it won't be long now," Tommy Burke, St. John's, Newfoundland, bottom, tells his buddies, Tommy Kitchen, Coldwater, Ont., and Walter Brown, Galenso, Que., as they lie in their three-tiered bunks.

Soldier Victims of Wreck Flown Home for Christmas

By Barry Broadfoot

A "Home for Christmas" flight carrying 15 happy guys took off eastward this morning from Edmonton's airport. It was a flight many of them never expected to make.

A oard were 15 members of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery injured in the Canoe River train wreck.

Each was being flown home to spend Christmas with his family in Eastern Canada before being readmitted to hospitals for further treatment.

As Bombardier Tommy Smith of Toronto said "Best Christmas present I ever had. Sure never expected to see home and the folks for a long time."

And Tommy expressed the sentiments of all his buddies.

BRUSH WITH DEATH

As the big silver Dakota waited on the tarmac, ambulances unloaded the men who had such a close brush with death on the troop train.

Six were stretcher cases. Nine were assisted into the special bunks prepared in the ship. Orderlies assisted in making the men secure and comfortable.

Although the temperature was below zero outside, the ship was

Bit Warmer Here Today

Well, it's going to get a little warmer today.

Weatherman said so.

Temperatures, which last night took an unexpected drop down to four below, will today make their way up to 22.

Tomorrow and Sunday will also be a little brighter. Tonight temperatures will drop to zero, then tomorrow climb back up to 30 to cause "slightly warmer weather."

Much the same conditions are expected Sunday.

Similar changes are across the province where in the south average temperatures ar between 30 and 35 and in the north between 10 and 15.

As for yesterday, westherman got into one of his not-talkative moods. He forecasted a high of 20 —it only got up to 11.

WE'LL BRING YOU BEST-LOVED CAROLS

A special Christmas gift will be in tomorrow's Edmonton Bulletin for readers.

A supplement containing 26 of the best-loved Christmas carols will go with each copy of the Bulletin.

U.S. Makes Bid In Atomic Race With New Plan

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The United States yesterday took a forward step in the atomic race, announcing a three-power agreement to promote the recovery of uranium as a by-product of South African gold.

Four South African mining firms will produce the rare element, prime source of atomic energy, and the United States and the United Kingdom will undertake to buy it. If necessary, they will lend money to cover the costs of the uranium processing plants.

PITTSBURGH FINDS:

Nothing Can Take Place of Newspaper

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—(BUP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Association showed "What happens when newspapers don't hit town" in a report on the effect of a seven-week shutdown of dailies in Pittsburgh.

Business and community life took a beating and Pittsburgh became a virtual "city in the dark" when its three dailies were closed October 12 through November 17 by a strike of mailroom employes, according to a full-page advertisement prepared by the Association's Bureau of Advertising for member newspapers.

The ad carries a chart showing that Pittsburgh's department store sales in October were down 8.6 per cent from October, 1948, while in the three preceding months this year sales were running well ahead of 1948.

The reactions of Pittsburgh citizens to a newspaperless life were quoted.

Without newspapers, Mayor David L. Lawrence was quoted, the people's "effectiveness as citizens is restricted."

"No news is really the worst news we can have," he said.

The Bureau of Advertising summed it up: "... People tried other ways of getting the news. Business tried other kinds of advertising. But all the substitutes were found wanting. Nothing could take the place of newspapers."

LACK OF PRIVACY in a movie star's marriage is said to be reason behind pending divorce of 18-year-old actress Elizabeth Taylor and Nick Hilton, hotel tycoon's son she married last May. Charges On Wreck B.C. Responsibility

Three-Man Transport Board Ends Canoe River Hearings

Final chapters in the record of the Canoe River disaster will be written in Victoria, B.C. and Ottawa.

A three-man board of federal transport commissioners left yesterday for the national capital where they will study evidence presented by 30 witnesses in the three and one-half day inquiry into the rail wreck.

No date was set for the board's findings to be made public.

W. B. Colvin, representative of the B.C. attorney-general's department, left at the same time to give his report on the costly passenger-train trooper smash-up.

The B.C. government has the say-so on possible criminal charges arising from the evidence given at the hearing which concluded here yesterday.

No intimation was given from the inquiry court that charges would be made.

The transport board, under chairmanship of Mr. Justice Archibald, chief commissioner, is expected to include recommendations on train despatching practices in its report.

VICTIMS TESTIFY

Included in the long list of inquiry witnesses were two convalescent soldier survivors who were travelling in the foremost coach of the passenger extra 2488 which ploughed headlong into eastbound No. 2 passenger train at 10:35 a.m. Nov. 21.

One of the soldiers was on crutches and both showed scars of their ordeal on the lonely mountain curve near Canoe River, B.C., on the CNR's mainline 312 miles west of Edmonton.

Many of the CNR employes who testified, including the despatcher and two operators involved in the transmission of fateful order 246, under which the trains were running, showed emotion when giving evidence on the disaster.

BREAKS DOWN

One witness broke down momentarily in the middle of his story.

His reaction was an example of the feelings piled up as the wreck story was re-told and the grim toll of 21 dead and scores injured was recounted.

Four of the killed were members of the two engine crews.

Seventeen soldiers were killed. Bodies of three of the dead were never found in the explosion and fire-swept wreckage.

Four top CNR national officials, Alberta's chief coroner, the officer in charge of the Second Field Regiment Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, members on the trooper, and surviving crew members from both trains, also gave evidence.

Dramatic highlight of the inquiry was the admission by youthful telegraph operator Albert Atherton, 22-year-old son of a veteran station agent, that his failure to live up to the letter of railway rules resulted in the collision.

A pinpointing of Atherton's position came when CNR chief of transportation H. F. Fox was giving evidence in the closing moments of the inquiry.

Earlier Atherton had admitted under questioning by Roderick Kerr, assistant counsel to the board, that he had not listened in to another operator's repeat of order 246.

His failure to do so led to two different versions of the order—Atherton's without the words "at Cedarsnide."

'OVERLAP IS CAUSE'

The result was the two trains running under the order had different speeds limits named—and the crash followed because of the "overlap."

Fox's late-in-the-hearing testimony bore on whether or not Atherton at Rei Pass Junction was required to listen to the Blue River operator's repeat of the Kamloops despatcher's order on the movement of passengers 2 and 4 east and troop train west.

He said the CNR impressed its operators with the fact that they "must" listen to such repeats, if admitted when asked by Order of Railway Telegrapher counsel Lorne Campbell that the actual wording of rule 211 was "should listen."

Final queries on this point were instigated by Mr. Colvin, whose B.C. government department must order arrests if and when they arise in the wake of the disaster probe.

DISMISSED BY CNR

Earlier, the court had been told that Atherton was under notice of dismissal from the CNR.

Much of the last day's evidence centred around the evidence of four CNR national department heads and covered the larger field of the CNR's general operations.

Wreck Victims Flown Home

warm and snug—heated by a special system used by the RCAF on hospital planes.

"I hope the driver of this plane," laughed one gunner, "doesn't get us into another mess like last month. That would be too much."

His comrades laughingly agreed.

A HAPPY SHIP

It was a happy ship. The men bantered back and forth and spirits were high. They knew they would be home soon—some in a few hours—none longer than three days.

The plane will stop over tonight in Winnipeg and the men will be transferred to Deer Lodge Military hospital. Saturday morning, they will fly to Toronto, then to Montreal and last stop, St. John's, Nfld.

The flight was ordered by the adjutant-general in Ottawa in conjunction with the RCAF.

All but four of the injured are now out of University hospital. One is recovering from an operation and three have no homes to go to and will spend Christmas in Edmonton.

RETURN TO JOB

But, aboard the plane there wasn't one who didn't look forward to discharge from hospital and a return to the job for which he enlisted.

That's a long way off for some of them. Gunner C. Smith, Niagara Falls, Ont., has a broken back and two paralyzed legs and further skin grafts await. Gunner Walter E. Brown, Cowansville, Que.

And it will be another six months before Gunner T. W. Kitchen, Coldwater, Ont., will be able to move the knee shattered by a falling berth.

If Gunner G. P. Thompson had his way, his homeward journey wouldn't stop until he reached Johannesburg, South Africa.

His family there is working hard to secure his passage back to South Africa but if that doesn't work, the adventure-loving gunner will settle for a Christmas with a Peterborough, Ont., family he met soon after his arrival here.

LUCKY ONE

Thompson, however, was one of the lucky ones. He was riding in Car 31, nearest passenger car to the troop train engine, and was one of the few to escape serious injury in the twisted steaming wreckage.

Gunner J. B. Duffy, 24, of Toronto, will have one of the shortest distances to travel home after his arrival at Toronto's Chorley Park Hospital. But few Christmases will be larger than the one Duffy will stage with his nine brothers and sisters at his mother's home there.

The big Dakota will reach St. John's, Newfoundland, Sunday noon when it will deposit its last two passengers, Gunner F. J. Burke, St. John's, and Jack Wellon, Ladle Cove.

6 AT TORONTO

One artilleryman will leave the plane in Winnipeg today, six more get off at Toronto tonight, five more leave at Montreal on Saturday and one at Halifax the same day.

They'll have the company of three service medicos on their way home: Major A. E. Harsman, Assistant Chief Medical Officer for Western Command, Flt.-Lt. (Matron) G. M. K. Davis, and RCAF Medical Sergeant Jack Little.

Ship Survives Gale Damage

BREST, France, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The 3,658-ton Greek freighter, Agios Spyridon, limped into port here today, badly battered by a gale that damaged half a dozen ships on the Atlantic coasts of France and Spain.

A French tug helped the Greek ship into port. One of the crew, badly injured, was sent to hospital.

Two men and a woman from the ship, washed overboard, were picked up by French ships. Five others are believed to have been rescued by the U.S. ship Beaver State.

English Lettering On Rockets Used By Chinese Reds

U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Chinese Communists have fired rockets marked with English letters and figures at American troops in northwest Korea.

The Red rockets, similar to those used in the deadly American bazooka, were fired last month north of Pyongyang.

An army spokesman said an intelligence report indicated about 20 such rockets were found by the U.S. 2nd Division in the Won and Kujang areas when the Chinese temporarily were driven back.

It was not determined where the missiles were manufactured.

defending Seoul in West Korea.

A communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported massed Chinese troops moving southeast down the centre of the Korean peninsula. They may be setting up a giant flanking assault designed to envelop the 8th Army around Seoul and cut it off from Allied bases in Taegu and the Port of Pusan in Southeast Korea.

Columns of 1,000 to 2,000 troops with pack animals of 25 to 100 each ranging from camels to oxen were spotted and attacked by Allied aircraft all the way from the Manchurian border to points between the 38th and 39th parallel northeast of Seoul.

'WELL' OF MANPOWER

"The bottomless well of Chinese Communist manpower continued to overflow into Korea," the communique said. "Additional units of at least divisional strength are on the move south in both eastern and western sectors."

For the moment, however, the Chinese still were avoiding contact with UN 8th Army units on the Seoul defence perimeter. Only small-scale patrol clashes between North and South Korean units on both sides of the 38th parallel north and northeast of Seoul were reported.

In the air, four American F-80 Shooting Star jet fighters fought a 20-minute battle with 10 Russian-built jets 25,000 feet over Namsi, 15 miles southeast of the Yalu river Manchurian border.

10 JETS FLEE

The dogfight ended with one Communist MIG-15 fighter damaged and all fleeing across the border to the safety of Manchuria. The Shooting Stars escaped unscathed. Yesterday, four American F-80s also damaged an MIG-15 in a battle in the same area with 24 of the jets.

B-29 Superforts dropped 50 tons of 500-pound bombs today on each of three bases on the Chinese supply and reinforcement route to the Seoul front. They hit the border city of Sinuiju and Chongko, Sonchon and Chonju, all in northwest Korea.

Returning crewmen reported "excellent results."

TORONTO, Dec. 15.—(CP)—Two Toronto men who assaulted and robbed an Owen Sound district farmer, Robert Leifso, each was sentenced yesterday to eight years.

All Good Wishes

Mayor Sidney Parsons has left Edmonton for a sojourn of some weeks in Arizona where his physicians are confident he can regain his health.

The good wishes and cordial hopes of every last Edmonton citizen go with him.

His complete restoration to health would be one of the best Christmas gifts this city could have.

The Bulletin, upon occasion, has offered harsh criticism of Mayor Parsons and it is doubtless true that every citizen has disagreed with him at some time or another on some detail of policy.

That is exactly the way it should be. This is a free country of free speech and free opinion and it is the unrestrained impact of mind upon mind and view upon view that produces honest and progressive government.

But however much the citizens and The Bulletin have criticized some actions and some policies of Mayor Parsons, just as they have many times commended other of his actions and policies, they have never ceased to respect and admire the man.

They have never questioned his intense loyalty to the city and his unswerving devotion to the duties he has assumed as mayor.

Indeed, it is the very intensity of that devotion that is partly responsible for his need to seek a rest at the present time.

His insistence upon appearing for the city on Remembrance Day, for example, gave him the cold which brought on the attack which necessitated his leave of absence.

Mayor Parsons deserves well of this city and he may be assured that the kindest thoughts of the citizens will follow him during his temporary absence.

Prudham Named at Long Last

The appointment of the Hon. George Prudham to the federal cabinet has been a promised certainty for so long that the actual realization of it is no surprise.

On the contrary, his nomination has been delayed over a period of so many months that Edmonton people were beginning to feel some impatience.

Certainly most citizens have been acutely conscious of the manifest unfairness in asking Senator the Hon. James A. MacKinnon to continue in a cabinet post, representing Alberta, when the condition of his health demanded a release from responsibility.

There is no way of knowing, at the present time, what kind of a cabinet minister Mr. Prudham will make.

But we have learned from experience that Prime Minister St. Laurent, who must be aware of Mr. Prudham's abilities, does not create cabinet ministers lightly and does not choose his colleagues by either whim or geographical necessity.

The new minister has other advantages that are apparent to everyone.

He is young.

He has had practical business experience in a creative trade.

During his brief period he has been in the commons, he has had intensive training in parliamentary procedure and in representing a department in the house.

Mr. Prudham, then, has every chance of becoming an excellent minister and his fellow citizens have confidence that he will do so.

Meanwhile, it is impossible to permit Senator MacKinnon to retire from his cabinet responsibilities without acknowledging the debt owed to him by his country and by his city.

The senator filled a difficult and arduous cabinet post during the war with marked distinction.

His administrative efficiency has been complimented frequently by those members of the civil service who worked under him and who should have the best acquaintance with his capacity.

One senior civil servant observed, not long ago in Edmonton, that the departments presided over by Senator MacKinnon were the best organized and the best administered of the lot.

That is a high tribute from experienced men who see ministers come and go. It will be a pleasant reflection for Senator MacKinnon to carry with him into the upper chamber where all Edmonton hopes he will have many years of tranquil and useful service.

Open Sunday Not Acceptable

The defeat of an "open Sunday" plebiscite in Vancouver offers a decided setback to those forces intent, in Canada, upon the importation of the American view of the "day of rest."

Those who favor such an innovation will be discouraged by its repudiation in a city which, almost more than any other city in Canada, is under American influence.

Those who oppose it will be alarmed into greater vigilance and preventive action by the closeness of the vote which was roughly 25,000 for and 34,000 against.

There are a great many Canadian people and institutions, including The Edmonton Bulletin, who can see no harm in commercialized Sunday sport provided those games do not conflict with the usual hours of divine worship.

On the other hand, they are unalterably opposed to such relaxation and activities as Sunday movies, Sunday horse racing and open beer parlors on Sunday.

It is unfortunate that the Vancouver plebiscite was not more specifically selective, that the introduction of Sunday sport with paid admissions had to carry along with it the other objectionable features.

Surely there could be some relaxation of the Lord's Day Act with regard to Sunday sport without removing the restrictive authority of the Act as it concerns picture houses and beer parlors.

It should be remembered that the minor revolt against the closed Sunday has been provoked wherever the Lord's Day Act has been too rigorously and sometimes bigotedly enforced. Such has been the case in Toronto and now in Vancouver.

If the Lord's Day Act were regarded only as a means of curbing outrageous Sunday laxity and the introduction of the wide open American Sunday, a great deal of this discontent would disappear.

It is obviously a time for compromise on both sides.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime

By Webster

Elmore Philpott

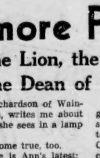

The Lion, the Dove And The Dean of Canterbury

Mrs. Ann Richardson of Wainwright, Alberta, writes me about the "pictures" she sees in a lamp globe.

They often come true, too.

Anyway, here is Ann's latest:

She sees the "lion sprawled out in relaxed fashion. He appears to be a very good - natured lion. Close to his head there is a dove-like bird who nestles up to the lion for protection. The little dove shows fear, but the lion shows no concern whatever, probably because he knows one swipe of his big paws would put to rout any enemy trying to get at the dove."

Philpott

Ann interprets her own vision to mean that world war will not break out now, but that peace will be organized by the powers on the "right" side of the political fence.

Canterbury Story Challenged

A good friend is astounded at my recent statement that the Red Dean of Canterbury stood beside Mr. Churchill on the day when the latter made that mighty fighting speech of defiance to Hitler.

"Surely you are not going to let yourself get away with that boner. If you are, do you mind if I send it to the U.K. papers to copy?"

Certainly I do not mind, for I copied it from the U.K. papers in the first place, and turn about is fair play.

The New York Times carried quite a little piece about it at the time the Red Dean was refused permission to fly from Australia to Canada, via U.S.A.

In those days the Dean of Canterbury was not as far to the left in politics as he later went. Maybe he was still a leading Social Credit supporter as he was in the '30s.

Personified Great Truth

I wrote that reference to the Red Dean and Mr. Churchill deliberately. For it personified a great truth.

One secret of the British strength is that in a real crisis they all stand together, as a team. The Ruddy Radical and the True Blue Tory stand shoulder to shoulder.

We saw that happen again last week when once again Britain saved the peace.

Comparisons are odious. But it is an obvious fact that the Americans react very differently than do the British. Right now some U.S. party politicians are "making hay" out of the danger of world war three.

Letters to the Editor

Compulsory Fingerprinting

Editor, Bulletin—In the past several days you have written two articles on your editorial page concerning compulsory fingerprinting for all.

I must congratulate your newspaper for taking this stand, and sincerely hope to see a continuation of such articles until the public becomes aware of a need of a civil identification file—such file to be kept entirely separate from the criminal files.

This file should exist for the protection of the average citizen and should never be checked with the criminal file, nor the criminal file with it.

Many citizens connect fingerprints with criminals. Law enforced agencies throughout Canada have been printing law breakers for many years, and even though these records are used for the protection of society by identifying the owners at a later date, it is equally true that those same records have come in mighty helpful to those criminals and their families. Statistics show that a large majority of our unknown dead who are identified by finger prints each year, are so identified through the criminal files. Why should Canadians force this protection upon the underworld and at the same time shy clear of it themselves? There's something wrong somewhere — by someone.

There are many obvious reasons for universal fingerprinting: quick, infallible identification of accident and catastrophe victims; identification of adults suffering from amnesia; prevention of mix-ups of babies in hospitals; restoration of lost or runaway children to their relatives; protection of savings bank accounts; and finally cheating potter's fields all over the dominion of any more 'unknown dead.' There would be no unidentified dead if everyone's fingerprints were on file. Grief stricken families wondering, hoping, waiting.

Creation of civil identification file should be done if at all possible on a voluntary basis. Should this fail, legislation should be enacted to make it compulsory for all at an easy age to be fingerprinted. Before either is attempted, the public should be educated. Non criminal fingerprinting in this present civilized age is a must. What better way to pave the way but through the newspapers.

It is gratifying to see that the Edmonton Bulletin has "started the ball rolling" in the right direction. Keep up the good work.

Home Rule For Scotland

Editor Bulletin—In reply to letter under caption, "Home Rule for Scotland," Allan Smith raises some good points against the movement. But I am afraid he has lost track of the principle.

Since it is known, that the Scot is a shrewd, capable and proud individual, he cannot be blamed for his resentment, in helping to govern a Government in which he has little or no say in.

"Home Rule for Scotland" is in principle a movement to stem the flow of native Lads and Lasses, from migrating elsewhere. Shades of Bonnie Prince Charlie, why do you suppose? The late father of confederation Sir John A. MacDonald came to Canada, Andrew Carnegie a mill puddler, General Douglas MacArthur's grandfather to the U.S.A. and other prominent Scots, (which space will not permit). Do you suppose Allan, these people left the land they loved, out of the sheer spirit of adventure? Why does Edinburgh abide by the title of "Pride and Poverty"? The Scot knows he can govern his own country better than anyone else. He should, as he has helped to govern other countries satisfactorily. Do you think that an older country like Scotland, a country who's people have helped to settle this globe can benefit by our mistakes. Nonsense Allan, they have forgotten more than we ever learned. All they need is their own autonomy to govern as they wish, and we would benefit greatly by it. Home Rule is not a move to weaken the Empire but rather to strengthen it. We may quarrel all we want to inside this empire family of ours but certainly won't brook interference from an outsider, and as "Rabbie Burns" once said "man was made to mourn" so how about eliminating some of that mourning and let Scotty look after his own house, he knows better than we.

J. G. DONNELLY.

Pen Pal Sought

Editor, Bulletin—With the approach of Christmas, and warmth and fellowship everywhere, I wonder if I might appeal for a thought for those who are lonely. Would any of the Bulletin's young readers be interested in corresponding with a little English girl, a Lancashire lass?

She's 20, she has pretty auburn hair, and she works in a silk factory. She would love to write to girls and boys in Canada, and I can assure any who may be interested that she writes most friendly letters, full of detail of her part of England and its way of life. The art of letter-writing is fading, but it is a pleasure worth cultivating.

Would anyone care to send a Christmas card or letter to Mary Beattie, 84 Standish Street, Chorley, Lancashire, England?

It's Poor Who Pay

Editor, Bulletin—May I add my small voice in protest against the Ottawa authorities taking off rent controls.

Isn't it about time that something was done for the poor working man to ease his burden? I don't think it's at all fair at the big shots to talk about all the new homes being built and bought, when there is not enough money going around to help people make both ends meet. Prices are going up on so many other necessary things, that after one's rent is paid—also lights and telephone—there is not enough to live in comfort.

How about sending some of these big talkers to the East-side of town and show them the other side of the story. Show them how rents have been doubled on small cold flats with no conveniences at all. There are plenty of instances of this kind here.

Please try and write in and protest against rent increases — fellow workers — it's no use growling to each other at home. Use your voices and protest at once. Now is the time to make a noise about it. Here's hoping for a little better living conditions here at home. Give the poor man a break.

Liquor Consumption

Editor, Bulletin—A recent press item reminds us again of the great economic toll of liquor consumption.

It is reported that the expenditure in the government liquor store of Cape Breton Island in the past year was nearly one-half of the estimated cost of the Canso bridge. In other words, in a little over two years they drank up the bridge financially.

One could make so many such comparisons which clearly indicate the great wastage of this traffic in liquor.

Question Box

How pure is the driven snow?

According to a "snowflake scientist" at the General Electric Laboratory, every picks up a great deal of foreign matter on its journey to earth—a great deal, that is, to a research scientist: the largest amount, one-billionth part of the snowflake. Laboratory snow has been produced, however, that is almost without any impurities whatever.

IDEAL NOT IMPOSSIBLE

More Than Language Seen Involved In National Unity

By ABBE ARTHUR MAHEUX

A Frenchman who writes regularly from Paris in one of our newspapers entitles one of his letters: "Towards National Unity." It is a very characteristic title and one which conveys lessons to us in Canada.

The lesson applies to those Canadians who persist in believing that a single language is the primary condition for national unity.

And thereby, in my opinion, they commit a singular error. If, in this world, there is a country in which a single language exists, it, assuredly, is France.

And yet it is in that very country that national unity no longer exists and efforts are being made to re-establish it.

One might almost believe that a single language in France has contributed greatly to spreading the causes of national division.

Not Because Of Language

It is a fact that if there is grave division between the people of France it is because of the introduction of ideologies, ideologies which have weakened national sentiment, formerly so strong in that country.

The single language has greatly facilitated the spreading of the Communist ideology, to mention it alone. A single language, therefore, is a two-edged blade.

Canada has two official languages, French and English. Certain people have attempted to see a basis for misunderstanding in this fact. Erroneous opinion. It is possible, while using two languages, to have national unity.

What is needed is common viewpoints, the goal to be attained. That which is necessary and essential is the kernel of the profound truths which rule consciences and which group individual wills in a single bundle.

On this point I would say that there is more unity in Canada than there is in France, and even in England. What, therefore, is needed? It is a more intensive use of the truths which we have in common.

Therein the schools, colleges and universities have a capital role. To them belongs the task of putting youth in possession of the machinery known as bilingualism.

The practical knowledge of both languages assures a better knowledge of the fundamental truths of Western civilization—to which we belong—and its two great variants, French and English, and its Canadian branch as formed by detachment from its two mothers: England and France.

It is absolutely necessary that our two groups know and understand each other, and therefore that they read the articles in periodicals, booklets, books published by both sides, and in their maternal tongues rather than in translations.

An ideal, you will say? What of it? It is an ideal which is not hard to attain. In order to attain it, it is necessary first of all that the teaching body break with all kinds of routine, and that they become quite up to date.

The world, seemingly, travels faster than the professors. If the world proceeds by auto or by plane and the professors walk, they will find it very difficult to come together!

Smiles

A newly-married man found his wife in tears when he arrived home from business.

"You know that cake I made from Mother's recipe?" she sobbed. "Well, I put it out to cool and the cat ate half of it."

"Never mind, darling," he comforted. "I know someone who will give us a kitten."

"Is Mr. Blank there?" said an agitated voice.

"Do you want my husband in his capacity of veterinary surgeon or as Chief Constable?" inquired the woman rather pompously.

"Both, madam," came the reply. "We can't get our bulldog to open his mouth, and—there's a burglar in it."

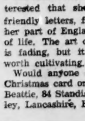

THE DOCTOR SAYS

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, MD.

Advice Should Come From Authentic Source

Just because something appears in print does not mean that it is true. Today's first question, if correctly quoted, is an example of this kind.

Q—I have a book by a Mr. Holden called "Why Humanity Suffers" in which he states that milk, especially pasteurized milk, is a probable cause of much dysentery. He says many germs are not destroyed by the temperatures used in pasteurization, and that we are at the mercy of an industry that is destroying national health faster than the medical profession can build it up. Would you not be ostracized if you publicly advocated less drinking of pasteurized milk?

Dr. Jordan

MRS. J. B. C.

A—I am not familiar with this book, but the quotation from it seems to be confused and inaccurate. If dysentery is caused by milk, it is the result of germs already in the milk, and not of the pasteurization. It has been shown by rigorous tests that proper pasteurization destroys the germs causing human disease.

The milk companies have had to purchase expensive equipment in order to pasteurize and although I know little about the business, I am sure that it would be simpler and cheaper for them if they did not pasteurize. Pasteurization is helping, not harming, the health of the public.

Q—What is the cause of a lack of calcium in the system of an elderly woman? Can it be cured, and would it cause backaches?

READER.

A—My lack of calcium in the system I suppose you mean that the bones have less calcium in them. This decrease in bone calcium is normal in the later years of life, and little or nothing can or needs to be done for it. It is probable that it has no relation to the backaches.

★ ★ ★

Q—Recently, I swallowed a fishbone. Am I in danger of having a perforated stomach, or having a cyst formed because of it?

A—If the bone went all the way down into the stomach, it was dissolved there by the acid. It would not cause a perforation or a cyst. About the only danger from swallowing a bone is when it sticks in the passageway from the mouth to the stomach, or gets inhaled into the passages leading to the lungs.

Magistrate to Get Tough With Drivers Who Drink

A crackdown was promised today by Magistrate S. G. Main on Christmas celebrants driving autos while drunk.

Stating that he had "no sympathy for this offence," he sentenced Walter Milley, 10652-96 street, to seven days in Fort Saskatchewan when he pleaded guilty to drunken driving. Milley's driver's licence was suspended for one year.

Milley said he had been to a party Dec. 14. He was arrested by police following a minor traffic accident at 100 street and Jasper.

Officers said Milley hit a street car. When they investigated, Milley was staggering on his feet.

ALWAYS BAD

"This time of year is always bad for this sort of thing," said Assistant Crown Prosecutor Guy Beaudry.

"If people drive when drunk, they can expect no mercy.

"Drunken drivers are using a deadly weapon when they drive."

"Anybody from now on who appears before me on a drunk driving charge can expect to spend Christmas in Fort Saskatchewan Jail," commented Magistrate Main.

Newsprint Usage Seen at New High

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The commerce department forecast yesterday that United States consumption of newsprint will reach a new high of 5,700,000 tons this year, topping last year's record of 5,517,000 tons nearly four per cent. The department's foreign commerce weekly said newsprint imports, on which the U.S. press is dependent for the bulk of its supplies, also are expected to go above last year's all-time high.

U.S. Ships to Carry Coal to Britain

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—More than 80 charter ships will bring American coal to Britain this winter to keep its defence and other industrial plants roaring and transport moving. North Areas Hold Vote

Number of commissioners in villages was increased from three to five in the B.C. Peace River Block and area yesterday as ratepayers went to the polls.

In Dawson Creek, D. A. Linklater, D. H. Morrow and Gordon Kittson were elected commissioners for Northern B.C. town. Refusal of senior commissioner J. D. Hill to run for another term resulted in the necessary election of a third man to make up the five-man board.

FOR TWO YEARS

Linklater and Morrow will take office for two years and Kittson for one year.

Standings in the election were: Linklater 174, Morrow 166, Kittson 159, and Ravelli 85. Out of a possible 778 voters, only 25 percent cast their ballots.

In a hotly-contested election in McBride for three village commissioners, Arthur Klohn topped the poll, with F. F. Sait and Len Waller placing second and third.

Mayor Webb and Deputy Larry Kemple were not contesting their seats in the elections.

ETS Plans Extra Buses

Special holiday season service on all ETS routes was announced today by Superintendent Tom Ferrier.

Extra buses and street cars will be in operation on all lines, giving a three-minute service on main routes, during shopping hours until Saturday, Dec. 23.

Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, special after-midnight service will be operated on all routes, with last cars and trolley coaches leaving 101 street and Jasper at 2:00 a.hm.

Passengers are asked to familiarize themselves with departure times at transfer points, and to make sure they allow sufficient travelling time from their shopping district to transfer point.

"Every available street car and bus will be in service," said Mr. Ferrier. "Save time—every second counts. Help speed up service—leave by the centre exit door on vehicles so equipped."

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY, all of $24,000. That's what actor Jimmy Stewart gets in Twentieth-Century Fox's newest comedy sensation, "The Jackpot," which opens Friday at Capitol Theatre. Barbara Hale co-stars as Stewart's wife and comedian James Gleason, Fred Clark, Alan Mowbray and Patricia Medina are featured in supporting cast.

'Jackpot' Tells of Troubles Befalling Jackpot Winner

"The Jackpot," one of the most hilarious comedies of the year, co-starring Jimmy Stewart and Barbara Hale, opened today at the Capitol.

The Twentieth-Century Fox offering, taken from a story in The New Yorker, tells about the troubles that befall the winner of a $24,000 radio jackpot prize.

And Stewart is the man who finds out that all is not as smooth for a big prize winner as one would think.

In the story a quiz show calls for the right answer to "The Mystery Husband", which Stewart supplies, but from then on it's a perpetual quandary for Jimmy, as he finds taxes mounting, his promotion cancelled and his job in doubt.

EVERYTHING OK

In the end, however, everything works out all right, for "The Jackpot" has been designed strictly for hilarity and from all accounts his big target as surely as his star hits "The Jackpot."

With Stewart and Barabara Hale, known for her "Mrs. Joison" role, is a strong line-up of supporting talents.

The redoubtable comedian James Gleason is on hand to play a newspaperman friend of Stewart's who begins by covering the story of his winnings and ends up by saving his skin.

Fred Clark is in for the role of Stewart's boss at the department store where he is a rising junior executive until the jackpot is hit, and Alan Mowbrey and Patricia Medina turn up as prizes in the pot.

PORTRAIT PAINTER

The former is an interior decorator who comes to town to re-do the Stewart-Hale household, the latter is a portrait painter who nearly revamps their marriage.

Natalie Wood and Tommy Rettig are the children of the family. Robert Gist as the family friend and Lyle Talbot a job rival.

"The Jackpot" was produced by Samuel G. Engel and directed by Water Lang, of "Cheaper by the Dozen," fame.

City Cook Sent to Jail

An Edmonton cook, D. Papastamatiou, yesterday was sentenced to 30 days in Fort Saskatchewan by Magistrate S. G. Main when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assault.

He also was fined $20 and costs when he pleaded guilty to wilful damage. A charge of theft was dismissed.

Papastamatiou was charged with stealing eight dollars from Roy Tanner, night clerk of the Roseberry Hotel, on Nov. 24. He pleaded guilty to assaulting Tanner and smashing a door in the hotel later the same night.

Helen Andrews, no fixed address, was sentenced to three months in jail when she pleaded guilty to a second offence under the liquor act.

DRIVER FINED

Donald Brewer was fined $40 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of dangerous driving Nov. 24.

Police said Brewer sideswiped a phone pole at 95 street and 103A avenue, careened across the street and hit a parked car. Brewer stated that icy road conditions caused him to skid were responsible for the accident.

First industrial enterprise on the American continent was a crude glass furnace, constructed to make beads for trading with the Indians.

Canadian Crops Decrease In Value

Billion and a Half Estimate Is Fifth Highest In History

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.—(CP)—Canada's principal field crops, on the basis of a preliminary estimate, were worth $1,482,901,000 this year compared with $1,544,014,000 in 1949, a drop of about four per cent, the bureau of statistics reported today.

The 1950 gross dollar value of the crops, due for revision upward when anticipated participation payments are paid on western grains, was the fifth highest in history. It was exceeded only in 1919, 1947, 1948 and 1949.

The quality of frost-damaged western wheat and barley, the lower initial price for western wheat and a lower average price for potatoes were factors mainly responsible for the decrease in the value of the crops.

The wheat crop of 465,300,000 bushels—about 95,000,000 bushels greater than in 1949—was valued at $401,000,000 compared with $566,114,000, a drop of 13 per cent. The average farm value dropped from $1.54 a bushel in 1949 to $1.06 this year.

SHOW INCREASE

The oats crop of 255,600,000 bushels—65,000,000 bushels greater than in 1949—was valued at $265,776,000 compared with $251,045,000. The barley crop of 171,000,000 bushels—50,000,000 greater than in 1949—was valued at $153,879,000 compared with $157,124,000.

By provinces in order of magnitude, the total values of 1950 crops were as follows, with the 1949 figures in brackets: Ontario $388,257,000 ($359,256,000); Saskatchewan $369,214,000 ($405,963,000); Alberta $240,825,000 ($296,685,000); Quebec $218,429,000 ($193,361,000); Manitoba $162,664,000 (204,042,000); British Columbia $27,916,000 ($34,469,000); New Brunswick $25,360,000 ($32,120,000); Nova Scotia $23,413,000 ($22,472,000); Prince Edward Island $17,825,000 ($25,526,000).

PRAIRIES LISTED

For the three prairie provinces the total value of each of the five principal grain crops in 1950 was estimated as follows, with the 1949 value in brackets: Wheat $432,490,000 ($312,870,000); oats $129,100,000 (141,150,000); barley $116,330,000 ($142,880,000); rye $13,502,000 ($8,980,000); flaxseed $14,108,000 ($6,794,000).

The total value of the five crops for the three provinces amounted to $708,330,000 compared with $812,674,000 in 1949.

All But Few of 3,000 Flood Evacuees Home

CALGARY, Dec. 15.—(CP)—All but a few of the 3,000 Bow river flood evacuees are back in their homes today. They fled their river-area houses in east-central Calgary last Nov. 20 when the ice-jammed Bow flooded its banks at night in 20-below-zero weather.

Still homeless are a few evacuees whose homes right on the river bank, are not yet suitable for reoccupation.

Bulk of the 2,000 were homeless at least one week, until the Bow Level went down inside its dike-lined banks.

No one was permitted to take up residence again in the flood area until gas, engineering and health department officials had ruled homes habitable. Only three minor cases of looting were reported.

TREMENDOUS JOB

The job of cleaning up flood-damaged homes is a tremendous and heartbreaking task. Mute testimony of some of the hardships faced by the returned evacuees, and also an indication of how high the flood waters rose in residential districts, is the common sight of ruined mattresses lying outside houses.

Damage to property and business stock has been estimated conservatively at $500,000 by a volunteer committee of insurance adjustors. Much of this was borne by families and shopkeepers in the low-income brackets.

Typical is the case of elderly Mrs. Leah Finkelstein, who is struggling to start business again in her small grocery store. Most of her stock was ruined.

"I started in business 28 years ago with $3.25," she said. "I now have $5. I don't know what I'll do."

FURNITURE HIT

Damage was heavy to furniture and flooring. No exceptional cases of building damage have been reported.

Flood victims have been asked by Mayor D. H. Mackay to submit written statements outlining loss in detail. This is necessary before any city assistance can be given.

Contributions are coming in steadily to a flood fund which last night totalled $7,822. Some cities have sent contributions and others, including flood-battered Winnipeg, have offered help.

Labor Offers Plan For Increased Steel

Five-Point Program Calls For Labor-Management Works

TORONTO, Dec. 15.—(CP)—C. H. Millard, national director for Canada of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO-CCL) has proposed a five-point program for increasing Canada's supply of steel.

The proposal is made in a letter from Mr. Millard, released today from the National Steelworkers' office here, to the steel controller for Canada.

It proposes:

1. Immediate establishment of a tri-partite steel council representative of the corporations, government and labor, to direct the general development of the industry.

2. Expansion of steel-making capacity by at least 1,000,000 tons a year including, if necessary, the public development of new steel-making pyants.

3. Full inquiry into the possibility of new steel plants at the head of the Great Lakes; in Quebec or the expansion of the maritime industry; and at the west coast, to take advantage of iron ore resources available at each site.

4. A price stabilization program to end inflationary trends.

5. The development of over-all collective bargaining policies which would ensure uninterrupted production of steel.

Farm Body Starts Drive

CALGARY, Dec. 15.—(CP)—An expansion program that includes the opening of an office in Edmonton and the launching of a province-wide daily farm broadcast was given overwhelming support by delegates to the 10th annual meeting of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture here yesterday.

Directors named by delegates today were: dairying, Roy C. Marler of Bremner; seed growers and beekeepers, Carl Antonson of Pibroch; farm supplies, George Church of Balzac; poultry, K. V. Kapler of Strome; grain, Ben Plumer of Bassano; sugar beets, Phil Baker of Lethbridge; sheep and wool, L. R. Jenson of Magrath; and livestock, Hugh Allen of Hualilen.

Named as Farmers' Union of Alberta representatives on the board were Mrs. R. V. Gunn of Furness, Sask., L. E. Pharis of Magrath and A. R. Hadland of Baldonnel, B.C.

India Leader Is Mourned

BOMBAY, India, Dec. 15.—(AP)—India's deputy prime minister, Sardar Vallabhai Patel—the iron man who merged 600 princely states into a stable, single country—died here today.

The country went into immediate mourning for the 75-year-old strong man of the ruling congress party, who with the late Mohandas K. Gandhi and Jawaharial Nehru had formed the triumvirate which led India's successful fight for independence.

President Rajendra Prasad, Prime Minister Nehru and the former governor-general, Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, prepared to fly here. Political circles said Rajagopalachari may succeed Patel as deputy prime minister.

Patel died after a heart attack in the palatial Bombay residence of industrialist G. D. Birla. Gandhi died from an assassin's bullet in 1948 on the lawn of Birla's New Delhi home.

U.S. Casualties Show Rise Of 1,436 In Week

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Announced United States casualties in the Korean war rose to 33,878 yesterday, an increase of 1,436 in a week.

Yesterday's weekly summary reported 5,870 deaths, of which 5,288 were killed in action, 607 died of wounds, and five are now known to be dead after previously being reported missing in action.

It listed the wounded at 23,477 (including the 607 who later died). Missing in action: 5,148.

The new totals are based on notifications to next-of-kin through Dec. 8, but probably reflect few of the losses suffered when United Nations forces were hit by the huge Chinese Communist offensive.

Red-Dominated Union Expelled From Congress

VANCOUVER, Dec. 15.—(CP)—Local 28 of the Vancouver Civic Employes Union was suspended today by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Carl E. Berg of Edmonton, vice-president of the TLC, has been here for two months in a campaign to rid the 1,500-member local of what the labor body called Communist domination.

The suspension was handed down in Ottawa by Percy R. Bengough, TLC president, who said:

"Conclusive evidence has been placed before me proving continuous collaboration between the officers and representatives of Vancouver CEU No. 28 and ranking members of the LPP, to a degree to eliminate any shadow of doubt that (Local 28), under its present leadership, is definitely under Communist control."

Mr. Bengough called on all members of Local 28 to align themselves with Vancouver Civic Employes' Union, Local 407, set up by the TLC a short timeago in opposition to Local 28.

The local was suspended as a result of a resolution passed at the 1948 convention of the TLC calling on all affiliated unions to remove Communists and fellow travellers from key positions and expel them from the ranks.

County Act Open For Applications

Alberta districts where county system of local government is desired in 1951 must submit their resolutions to the provincial government by Dec. 31, Hon. C. E. Gerhart, municipal affairs minister, said yesterday.

One formal application for the establishment of a county has been received from the Vulcan area, Mr. Gerhart said. Six other areas have indicated their wish to be organized as counties.

Under the provisions of the County Act, passed at the last legislattive assembly, school boards or municipal councils in a specific area may request establishment of a county system of government.

Some minor changes may be incorporated in the draft of the City Act before it is presented to the legislature in February.

Mr. Gerhart said yesterday conferences of civic treasury officials currently being held in Calgary may result in recommendations for minor amendments to the draft bill.

"These would be merely changes in the mechanics of the Act; the principles would not be affected," Mr. Gerhart said.

ETS Buses Break Down On Long Haul to Home

Two of Edmonton Transit System's 10 new propane-powered buses were returned to the factory for repairs, after being damaged on storm-battered highways soon after starting their long road trip to Edmonton two weeks ago.

Superintendent Tom Ferrier said yesterday one bus skidded into a second which had stopped south of Buffalo, N.Y., on icy roads where heavy six-lane traffic had been cut to one lane.

Both were so badly damaged it was thought unwise to bring them on. They will be shipped by freight when repairs have been completed by the Twin Coach factory at Fort Erie, Ont.

Damage was covered by insurance, said Mr. Ferrier.

One of the remaining eight developed engine trouble north of Lethbridge and had to be towed to Edmonton last Saturday. Twin Coach is supplying a new engine.

The bus should be in service within two weeks.

Other seven will all be in service by tomorrow, Mr. Ferrier said.

Red Cross To Carry On

Sickness and accident never take a holiday so it is "business as usual" for the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service throughout the festive season.

This week the Red Cross has issued a special appeal for voluntary blood donors to attend pre-Christmas clinics being held in the city.

It is estimated that 600 bottles of blood will be required to supply the needs of patients in Edmonton city hospitals during the holiday period.

To meet this demand blood donor clinics are being held Monday, Dec. 18, in the evening only, from 5:30 to 8:00 o'clock. On Thursday, Dec. 21, the clinic will be open in the afternoon and evening from 2:00 to 8:00 o'clock, in the downtown premises at 9950 102 avenue.

Last year 102 transfusions were supplied to hospital patients in Edmonton over Christmas and Boxing Day.

TOKYO, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A British seaman swept overboard during a violent storm in the Yellow Sea was saved by the same wave that snatched him from his ship.

The wave also tore loose a life raft and dropped it beside Cripps as he struggled in the mountainous seas. Cripps clambered on and kept paddling until the skipper, Cmdr. A. G. L. Seale, manoeuvred the destroyer alongside him.

Rassler Is Knife Victim

MARIETTA, Ga., Dec. 15.—(AP)—A wrestling match Wednesday night ended in a knife-to with one rassler in the hospital, with stab wounds.

The battle started after a decision went against Manny Lane, who has been in Atlanta ring for a couple of months.

Referee Jack Bloomfield caught a blow that started a three-way battle involving Lane, the referee and wrestler Red Dugan of Marietta.

Spectators surged toward the ring with chairs and tables. Police stepping in and broke up the rug battle.

Lane started for his dressing room, accompanied by rassler Karl Kowalski, who had rassled Dugan earlier in the evening. Some of the aroused fans surrounded them as they neared the dressing room. A knife flashed and before police could interfere Kowalski was cut twice.

He was taken to hospital with a stab wound in the right arm and a deep gash over his right eye. Kowalski, billed from Warsaw, Poland, was not in serious condition, the hospital reported.

The knife wielder was not caught.

Marshall Wells Triumph 6-1

Coach Doug Hardy's Marshall Wells' Commercial Hockey league team thumped Civil Service 6-1 last night at 139 street rink.

Lacey Carolan paced the winners with a pair of markers, while Frank Lozenko, Ron Richardson, Merv Arbuthnot and Ted Geisz scored once.

Bob Becker tallied for the losers.

RELAXING after pacing Oil Kings to 9-3 win over Medicine Hat Tigers at Gardens last night are Edmonton forwards, from left, Bruce Dickson, Russ Kowalchuk and Jack MacDonald. Dickson fired four goals, Kowalchuk three and MacDonald, although failing to score, also was outstanding.

Dickson, Noon Get Revenge As Oil Kings Triumph 9-3

Edmonton Oil Kings' junior hockey team players are feeling pretty happy today, especially Bruce Dickson and Buddy Noon. They'll tell you among other things, that revenge is sweet.

Dickson and Noon were vital factors as Oil Kings walloped Medicine Hat Tigers of the Western Junior Hockey league 9-3 before about 700 fans at the Gardens last night.

Both formerly were associated with coach Joe Fisher's Tigers, presently the hottest team in the WCJHL.

4 GOAL EFFORT

Dickson led the assault on his former teammates, blasting four goals past Murray Dodd in the Hat nets.

Rugged Russ Kowalchuk pulled the trigger on three goals while Mike Kinasewich and Frankie Ciniski accounted for singletons.

Brian Casey, Len Haley and Gordon Parkes were the only Tigers able to beat Noon in goal for Edmonton.

HALTS STREAK

Game abruptly brought to an end Medicine Hat's streak of seven wins, including six in WCJHL play. Fisher's charges started the hot streak by downing Oil Kings 7-2 at the Gardens two weeks ago.

Oil Kings will journey to Didsbury today where they'll play the Calgary Buffaloes to aid in the official opening of the new Didsbury Arena.

ROLLINS 'WINS'

Leafs, Wings NHL Victors

MONTREAL, Dec. 15 — League-leading Toronto Maple Leafs scored four goals in the first period and went from there to an easy 7-1 victory over Chicago Black Hawks before 9,224 National Hockey league fans in Chicago last night.

The second-place Detroit Red Wings kept pace with the Leafs and hung up their fifth straight victory as they whipped Boston Bruins 4-2 in a dull game at Boston.

The Leafs played aggressively from the outset. Sid Smith, Harry Watson, Danny Lewicki and Flem Mackell hit for those opening period goals. Joe Klukay raised it to 5-0 in the second period.

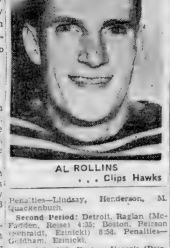

The Hawks spoiled Al Rollins' bid for a shutout at 8:27 of the third as Bill Mosienko connected.

The leafs, however, replied with a pair of tallies within 16 seconds. Lewicki hit for his second of the night at 9:29 and then, at 9:45, Max Bentley soloed in to make the score 7-1.

Detroit sewed up the decision over the Bruins with a pair of goals in the first seven minutes of play before a small turnout of 10,193 fans.

Detroit's famed Howe-Lindsay-Sid Abel line figured in the first three goals with rookie Clare Raglan accounting for the other for his first NHL tally.

Johnny Peirson and Pete Horeck counted for the losers.

Packers 'Cap' Imperials 8-1

Behind the steady netminding of Bill Thomas, Canada Packers defeated Imperial Oil Refinery 8-1 in a Commercial Hockey league game played at North Stadium last night.

Paul Tymchuk and Armand Brodeur led the winners, scoring three and two goals respectively. Singletons went to Maurice Lorieau, Roy Phillips and Barr.

Parent spoiled Thomas' bid for a shutout, scoring late in the final period.

HEADLINE TOMORROW'S CARD

Dunn Expects Rough Time Against Gamecock Velez

George Dunn, classy lightweight whose "other" job finds him working out of the hardware department of a local store, lays a lot of linoleum on his good days.

And that's what he hopes to do with Joey Velez when he meets up with the Spokane thumper at the Stock Pavilion tomorrow night—lay him out like a strip of linoleum.

That's what Dunn hopes to do. But even the battler who settled in Edmonton via Hartford, Conn., admits Velez will take some ironing out.

"I'm looking for a real rough time of it," Dunn said last night, following a workout at the Legion gym.

He had gone three fast rounds with Stan James, another pair with Bill Spring, wound up by pummelling the heavy bag.

The Dunn punches had brought on many a grimace by James and Spring. And those fists will need to be loaded extra heavily with TNT against Velez.

The boy from Spokane has never been knocked out.

Actually it's pretty generally agreed on the local Jacobs Beach that if a knockout is scored tomorrow night it will be by the harder-punching Velez.

Velez also staged a workout last night. Among the sparring partners he 'used up' was Roddy McDonald, the one time Fighting Cop.

Earlier in the day Velez, himself a victim of the dread disease in his youth, had visited the polio ward of a local hospital.

Resin dust: Seat sale goes on this morning. Arnold Dickson, co-promoter with Jack Berry, reports "more in the till already" than at tight time for the recent Dunn-'Dutch' Hopper fiasco.

The Stock Pavilion will have to be jam-packed if the Berry-Dickson axis is to get off the hot for this one.

McCullough Shines In 6-3 Quaker Win

SASKATOON, Dec. 15—(CP) — Saskatoon Quakers last night consolidated their hold on third spot in the Western Canada Hockey league by walloping the second-place Calgary Stampeders, 6-3.

The victory before about 2,000 fans moved Quakers to within four points of the Stampeders, who suffered their second loss in as many nights in their Saskatchewan jaunt. Stamps lost 6-4 to Regina Caps Wednesday night.

MCCULLOUGH GETS TWO

Chuck McCullough banged in two goals for the winners, with singletons going to Howie Milford, Stan Jones, 'Ited' Staley and Jack Shupe. Archie Scott, Don Anderson and Mitch Pechet tallied for Stamps.

Saskatoon held a 1-0 lead in the first period, and increased it to 3-1 in the second. They outscored the visitors 3-2 in the final frame.

Milford opened the scoring at 1:56 in the first period with a blistering shot from just inside the Calgary blueline.

Quakers went ahead 2-0 early in the second frame when Shupe tallied on Murray Parker's set-up.

Stamps cut the lead at 7:56 when Anderson scored on a pass from Dune Grant.

Less than a minute later Saskatoon went two up again when McCullough scored his first goal of the night.

A QUICK ONE

It took Calgary only 12 seconds of the last period to break into the scoring column. Scott knocked in Norm Larson's pass, while Zeidel was still off for a second-period penalty.

Jones sent Quakers in front 4-2 when he converted Zeidel's pass.

Staley's counter came while both teams were short-handed due to major penalties for fighting to Stamps' Macnab and Quakers' Kuzma.

Pechet drove in a double relay from Sid Finney and Scott at 19:30 but McCullough came back with his second goal with about six minutes remaining to end the scoring for the night. Saskatoon outshot Calgary 25-18.

Calgary — Dertell, Wilder, Macnab, Taggart; Gallagher, Simpson, Suber, Finnesby, Clarke, Finney, Pechet, Scott, Grant, Anderson, Larson.

Saskatoon—Gilmore, Milford, Heindl, McCullough; Kuzma, House, Subs: Zeidel, Parker, Shupe, Lovell, Jones, Hunter, Bentley, Staley.

Officials—Hank Nelson, White Rock, B.C., and Ike Morrison, Moose Jaw.

First Period — Saskatoon, Milford (House) 1:56. Penalty: Anderson.

Second Period — Saskatoon, Shupe (Parker, House) 3:34; Calgary, Anderson (Grant) 7:56; Saskatoon, McCullough (House) 8:23; Saskatoon, Jones (Zeidel) 12:43; Calgary, Pechet (Finney, Scott) 13:30; Saskatoon, McCullough (Kuzma) 19:34. Penalties: Macnab (major), Kuzma (major).

ROUGHRIDERS PLAN TO MEET SUNDAY

REGINA, Dec. 15.—(BUP)—Regina football fans will find out Sunday what Saskatchewan Roughriders will do to fill the gap caused by the resignations of club president Don MacDonald and chairman Jack Rowand of the players' committee.

The football club will renew its annual meeting Sunday, when the special committee will present its report.

The committee was set up to survey the situation following the two resignations.

MacDonald and Rowand resigned following a blow-up resulting from press and radio criticism of former Rider coach Fred Grant.

JIM DRYDEN FUND ENRICHED BY $102.15

Edmonton Oil Kings and their followers donated $102.15 to Jimmy Dryden, Medicine Hat Tiger centre-iceman, it was announced last night during the game at the Gardens, which Oil Kings won by a 9-3 count.

Money will go to the Dryden fund, established because the Edmonton boy lost the sight of an eye during a Western Canada Hockey league game earlier in the season.

Watt (Appendix Also) Returns to Action

That appendix of Gordon Watt's was just making a big fuss about nothing, as it turns out.

Flyers worked out at the Gardens last night and there, big as life, was team captain Watt, appendix and all.

Earlier in th. week the veteran defenceman had entered hospital for observation of a troublesome appendix. However three days of rest, combined with a change in diet, effected wonders.

It looks as though it won't be necessary to remove the appendix, not at this time, anyway.

As a consequence Watt will entrain with Flyers tomorrow when they head south to tangle with Stampeders in Calgary's Victoria Arena.

LET'S SPIN THE SPORTS SPHERE: R. JAMES SPEERS, the western Canada racing tycoon, and his recently appointed right-hand man LOU DAVIES, will be here at the week-end on business.

Davies, who succeeded to the manager's job of the R. James Speers corporation, following the death of CHARLIE ROE, arrived back in Winnipeg from Miami, Fla., yesterday. Just before shaking the south, DAVIES underwent an appendectomy.

It was an emergency job, with Exhibit 'A' under the knife just 30 minutes after the medicos decided he was for it.

Incidentally the Davies' appointment, made over a month ago, was one of the worst kept secrets in the history of prairie sport. At least five columnists, to say nothing of a sportscaster or two, carried an item on what was supposed to be a strictly under-the-hat bit of news.

★ ★ ★ ★

LOST-AND-FOUND DEPT.: Fighter GEORGIE DUNN was bemoaning the loss of a rubber, following his workout at the Legion gym last night. He couldn't figure out why whoever lifted his footwear, hadn't taken both while at it . . . Defenceman 'KRUSHER' CONWAY, who joined Vancouver Canucks Wednesday after considerable tub-thumping in the west coast papers, played with Montreal Canadiens, Memorial cup champions last season.

MAC (THE GREAT COMEBACK) COLVILLE is more than a little impressed with what Calgary Stampeders' sophomore star, SID FINNEY, has shown him in a hockey way. The veteran Flyer defenceman got around the other night to wondering "how old is that kid Finney?"

Forward JOHNNY HARMS, who was unloaded by Regina Caps yesterday (he's going to play for Eddie Wares in Nelson), failed to score a goal during his stay in Western Canada loop . . . Recreation Commission's Learn-To-Ski campaign gets underway today . . . Tennis enthusiasts will have a chance tomorrow to hear 'GORGEOUS GUSSIE' MORAN, JACK KRAMER and the rest of the touring pros on 'Sports College,' a radio feature carried locally.

Incidentally the word goes that the Moran gal was guaranteed no more than a modest (who said that?) 400 skins per week by professional promoter BOBBY RIGGS.

★ ★ ★ ★

TED JAMES, THE SINGING TRAINER, was in rare form to wind up the Dunn-Velez workouts last night.

By way of getting himself 'up' for his part on tomorrow night's fight card at the Cow Palace (he leads off with 'O Canada' and 'The Star Spangled Banner'), the Welsh-born tenor rattled off O Sole Mio (I'll give it to you in Italian") and Galway Bay for an attentive group of bangers-on . . . GEORGIE DUNN thinks EZZARD (DOUBLE Z) CHARLES, current heavyweight champ, would have flattened JOE LOUIS, even when the Brown Bomber was at the top of the heap.

As Dunn asks it: "Who'd Louis ever fight, except maybe BILLY CONN?" (Aside: He fought TONY GALENTO, though anyone could forget).

★ ★ ★ ★

The ear-muffs are off today to MOREY RIMSTAD and his scrappy Oil Kings for the elegant going-over they handed Medicine Hat Tigers at the Gardens last night. The 9-3 conquest made it three wins in six starts against WCJHL teams. Not bad, Mr. Rimstad, not bad.

BILL CARSE was released outright yesterday by Vancouver Canucks. Since being replaced several weeks back as Canuck coach by MURPH (HARD ROCK) CHAMBERLAIN, 'Scrapiron' had been trying to get in shape to resume a playing role.

Provincial government, through its treasurer, the Hon. A. J. Hooke, dug down for $500 with which to help Lethbridge Maple Leafs, Canada's representatives to the world amateur hockey tournament, foot their bills.

Gussie Fails To Show

TORONTO, Dec. 15.—(BUP)—"Gorgeous Gussie" Moran has stood up acting mayor John Innes of Toronto.

The fancy-pantied pro tennis star did not show up at a City hall reception for her yesterday. Innes waited almost an hour, then said: "To heck with Gussie." Innes went back to work.

Gussie's explanation: "I'm sorry . . . I overslept."

OUTSTANDING performers may mean difference between just a good season and conference title for basketball teams. Kansas State's Ed Head sticks out in Big Seven.

Sugar Ray Overseas

GENEVA, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Welterweight champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson arrived in Geneva yesterday for his non-title 10-rounder Saturday with Jean Walzack of France.

Later Robinson left his swanky hotel for a workout at the Pavilion des Sports.

George Gainford, his manager, said Robinson recalled that Walzack stayed 10 rounds with him in St. Louis last February.

"We'll be happy if we beat him, but it will be much nicer if we can knock him out," Gainford said. "Ray is hoping to get even."

Even Larson Doesn't Know

WINNIPEG, Dec. 15 — (CP) — Frank (Butch) Larson, coach of Winnipeg Blue Bombers, said in a statement yesterday prior to leaving with his family for Duluth, Minn., that his position with the football club "is not clear" for next year.

"I have received no indication that I will be offered a contract to coach the Blue Bombers in 1951," his statement said.

It added: "Accordingly I am returning to Duluth with my family under circumstances which leave some doubt as to whether this is a final good-bye or simply au revoir."

Tourney Planned For School Cagers

Four of Alberta's top high school basketball teams will meet in a round-robin tournament to be held in the Varsity Drill hall, Dec. 28 and 29.

The tourney is being sponsored by the University of Alberta Athletic board.

Edmonton's Victoria Composite Whites, featuring Don Monterief, John Galanha and more; Raymond, Magrath and a team from Calgary will participate.

Calgary likely will send Central or Crescent to the tournament.

Dr. Maury van Vliet, coach of Varsity Golden Bears, who is helping to promote the round-robin, said last night it is hoped the tournament will become an annual affair.

Visiting teams will be provided with room and board during their three day stay here.

Draws will be made out of a hat to decide opponents for the first night's play.

Following night the winning teams will play off, while the losers meet in a preliminary game for the 'booby' prize.

Round-robin is hoped to provide a much-needed 'shot in the arm' for local high school leagues.

FLANAGAN IN BID FOR BETTER THINGS

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Glen Flanagan, a member of the fighting Flanagan family of St. Paul, makes a bid for a featherweight title shot tonight when he faces Ray Famechon, the slick French holder of the European 126-pound crown.

The two will meet in the top 10-rounder of a boxing show at Madison Square Garden.

Flanagan has been busier explaining his "victory" over featherweight champion Sandy Saddler than with his training. It wasn't Glen but brother Dei, a lightweight, who upset Sandy in Detroit last week.

Just for Today

I almost gave up on Elegant Elsie when she asked me this one: Will Santa Clause find Vishinsky's stocking V-toed?

★ ★ ★ ★

I feel pretty happy today and a little bit like Santa Claus. That's because the Dakin family has a real nice home at last.

You'll remember my piece about war veteran Ralph Dakin, his Scottish wife and their bonnie babe living in a two-by-four trailer where ice formed on the walls?

Well, my old friend "Chuck" Henderson, who plays better baseball every year, retroactive to 1921, came to the rescue of the Dakins.

Chuck, who partners with Mr. Alloway in the real estate firm of Alloway and Henderson, offered a snug little suite, replete with furniture to the war vet. They rented it in a hurry.

A lot of other people offered help too but the Dakins could only choose one place.

So this is the end of the trailer for the Dakins and are they ever happy.

We haven't found Goldie yet and now there's another lost dog. This is a little golden-haired cocker spaniel, that strayed from the home of Mrs. Anne Dillon of 9603-99A street early in the week.

Note to director Robert Orchard of University of Alberta studio players: I didn't find you a juggler but I found you something just as good—a guy who will teach anybody to juggle in easy lessons.

William Clifford of Clifford Entertainers read my item about the University theatre group needing a juggler, for the play "Mad Woman of Chaillot", to be presented in February.

Then he phoned me and said: Tell Mr. Orchard I can teach anyone to juggle three baseballs, three tomatoes or three oranges in just four lessons. I'll give the lessons free every Wednesday evening.

Looks as if you won't have to juggle with that problem any more Mr. Orchard.

Note to juggle-teaching Clifford: Suggest you have pupil use apples because they'll be handy to an Orchard.

A dizzy goodnight to all and especially to jugglers.

MUSIC FOR CHILDREN

BEWILDERED LOOKS flicker across faces of Robert Cardinal, Jerry Chiktook and Johnny Ball as they listen to one of nine radios presented to Charles Camsell Indian Hospital yesterday by John Shadro on behalf of Kinsmen's Club. Later, lads clapped hands in glee at music. Matron Elva Taylor explains how to operate "talking box."

3 Aldermen, Businessman Win Fight on EEA Shares

Three Edmonton aldermen and a city businessman last night won a year-long battle to become recognized shareholders in the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

At its final meeting of the year, the Exhibition Board of Directors approved the transfer of shares to Warner Stevens, and Aldermen Dr. Rupert Clare, Duncan Innes and Ken Lawson.

The four bought their shares legally last year but the 25-member board refused at that time to approve the transfers.

NO OPPOSITION

But the four gained the legal right to their shares last night without a dissenting murmer as the Board approved all 17 share transfers proposed to it.

They had been appointed to the Board Wednesday night by the city council, which names 13 members of the 25 on the Board.

In all, there are 200 shares in the Exhibition Association, many of which are dormant because of the death or departure from the city of some shareholders.

A struggle has been waged for over a year to increase the number of actively participating shareholders and bring in a larger number of younger shareholders.

This was accomplished to some extent last night with the transfer of 17 shares.

New holders approved by the Board were J. E. Enright (transfer of share from A. W. Challend estate), W. Stevens (from A. V. G. Berry), F. H. Clarke (from E. H. Ayling), Ald. Dr. Rupert Clare (from Ralph Smith), M. Weir (from Joseph Clarke estate), F. Mace (from F. T. Shaw estate), Ald. Ken Lawson (from Joseph Driscoll estate), Ald. Duncan Innes (from T. M. Long), Ald. Bill Hawrelak (from S. H. Smith), J. McCartney (from W. M. Stewart), Gordon Smith (from S. L. Allan), Thomas Mooney (from George D. Hart estate), Joseph McKenzie (from D. B. Mullen estate), Norman McIntyre (from J. C McIntyre), John C. Harford (from K. A. Blatchford estate), S. Purcell (from Robert MacDonald estate), Thomas Connelly (from J. W. Connelly).

EEA Urges Co-operation On Auditorium for City

Edmonton's dream of a civic auditorium was aired again at a meeting of the Edmonton Exhibition Board last night.

Association directors indicated approval of a plan to cooperate with the provincial and city administrations in building the auditorium on Exhibition land.

But the directors finally by-passed a motion to set up an investigating committee and voted to leave the matter up to the incoming 1951 Board.

NEXT STEP

Manager Jim Paul, outlining tentative plans for the Auditorium, said the project had received support in several government quarters and urged the Exhibition Association to take the next step in securing cooperation with the city and provincial government.

He visualized the auditorium as a building seating 3,500 with room upstairs for committee and meeting rooms.

From the Exhibition Association's point of view it could serve the double purpose of an auditorium and a building suitable for exhibitions of Alberta's natural resources and manufactured goods, he said.

Moreover, it was emphasized, the Exhibition parking lot, largest in the city, would make the Exhibition grounds an ideal location for the dual-purpose auditorium.

Egg Prices Seen Lower

Egg prices on the Edmonton market are expected to drop as much as five cents within a few days, in line with yesterday's large-sized price drop in Eastern Canada.

(In Montreal, wholesale price of top-grade eggs dropped eight to nine cents a dozen and dealers said by the end of the week retail prices will be substantially lower. Similar drops were recorded in Toronto and Halifax.)

Poultry officials in Edmonton stated yesterday that there is still a shortage of Grade A eggs in Alberta, but that supplies will increase as hens are now coming into production.

IN LOOSE BULK

Grade A eggs in loose bulk are still wholesaling at 60 cents a dozen here yesterday.

Major drop in eastern prices was attributed to consumer resistance, surplus of fresh Canadian eggs and approach of the end on Dec. 31 of government price support.

Decrease in egg prices in Edmonton was forecast by poultry officials here who stated that the Western market must now be stabilized in relation to the new eastern prices.

GOOD CITIZENS

Community League Work Is Praised

The work Community Leagues are doing is making better Canadian citizens.

That was the message given to the monthly meeting of the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues last night by Mr. W Haugan, of the citizenship branch of the federal government.

Mr. Haugan particularly praised the Community Leagues for their work among the youth of the city.

Mr. Haugan's address was followed by a business meeting at which plans for the winter carnival were discussed.

President Charles Simmonds presided.

Library Meeting

The December meeting of the Edmonton Public Library Board will be held in the board room of the library at 8:15 p.m. on December 18.

Rotary Carol Singing Festival Opens Monday

The seventh annual Rotary Club carol singing festival opens Monday for four evenings in McDougall United Church.

Four organists and 1,000 singers grouped into 40 choirs will take part and the audience will also join in community singing of carols, led by Master of Ceremonies Harold Fazackerly.

Organist H. Wild will accompany ten choirs Monday night following the formal opening of the festival by Edmonton Rotary Club President Allen D. McTavish.

FIRST PROGRAM

The First Baptist Senior Choir, led by Mrs. F. Barber-Smith, and Youth Choir, led by Mrs. F. Barber-Smith will present the first part of the program together with the Edmonton College Kindergarten Carol Singers, under Gloria Patherny.

The latter group is one of the youngest musical aggregations in the city. Miss Padherny is only five years old and accompanist, pianist Karen Kaytor, is just six. They will sing Silent Night, Away In A Manger and Jolly Old St. Nicholas.

The remainder of the program features community singing led in turn by the choirs of Holy Trinity Church; Highlands Public School, grade seven; First Presbyterian Church; Mount Carmel School, grades seven and eight; Woodward's Choral Society; Highlands United Junior Girls' Choir; and St. John's Ukrainian Orthodox Church Choir.

Bob Crosby of CBS' 'Club 15' first sang on the air in 1930 when his songs over a p.a. system at a Spokane walkathon were broadcast.

Big Boost In House Building Here Reported

House construction in Edmonton was way up this year compared to last year. Up to Nov. 30 of this year 2,631 housing units were completed, compared with 2,043 in the same period last year.

The carry over from 1949 and the new starts for 1950 totalled 4,294. During 1949 carry over and new starts amounted to 3,857.

Still under construction on Nov. 30 this year were 2,076 housing units as compared to 1,814 at the same time last year.

Mysteries Of Arctic Aired

A history of the Arctic and its unsolved mysteries was the main theme of a talk by Stanley N. Smith, guest speaker at the Forest Heights Home and School Association meeting Wednesday evening.

Reports were also given at the meeting by T. Aitken, program report; S. Churchill, principal of Forest Heights school, school matters and publicity; Marjorie Bird, treasury; Mrs. E. Pollack, audio-visual report; Mrs. E. Flint, adult education; G. Valpy, membership; J. Muir, central council; Mrs. L. Misiner, entertainment report.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Bea Flips Party Ideas To Holiday Hostesses

By Bea Thrifty

Party patter quickens in pace as festive frolics of the holiday season loom over the edge of the calendar.

And now that Christmas shopping-proper is or should be well under control, there's a few fun-fest didoes to pick up in passing.

This year's party-patterned invitations are brighter 'n smarter than ever before. And if you have any left-overs from your gift-buying money you might invest in a few hospitality harbingers.

For them as plans to hold special-invitation parties during the holiday hospitality session, there are reams of personalized coasters, napkins, drink muddlers, match-folders, glasses, invitations.

You may still be in time to specially order initialed or signature sets of party necessities.

Money talk tells us initialed coasters are available from prices of 19c per set . . . these are heavy blotter-like paper of course. Gay little cocktail serviettes in matching motif and initialed to boot sell from 35c upward.

Gay nineties' theme will carry a conversation opener advantage with napkins, coaster and glasses theme with the naughty nonsense of the end-of the-century era.

Glasses, of all sizes, show can-can girls, straw-hatted Beau Brummels and half a dozen other "23-skidoo" characters.

They sell at prices ranging around $4.50 for eight.

Aprons galore are gay with party palaver and there are varied fashions for the fellas as well as the gal who's queen of the cuisine.

An eye-catcher of patter-possibilities is an apron printed with a large-size Mama kangaroo. Pocket of the apron is you-know-where . . . and it's a cutie for less than $2.

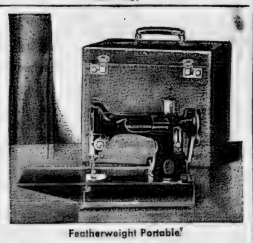

Usual bar-man aprons with pockets for olive pits, cigarette butts, lipstick tissues, bottle tops, and cocktail equipment such as openers, mixers, muddlers 'n such . . . sell at $1.98 for the man-of-the-house.

More subtle approach to the festive flavor of holiday hospitality is a set of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus aprons selling as a team for $2.98.

Incidentally, these party aprons are gay little-something-things to tuck into a corner of husband's pile of Christmas loot . . . whether he's chief in charge of cooking steaks . . . or chief in charge of opening bottles . . . milk or otherwise.

TEENAGERS should be given a chance for friends of the opposite sex.

WHY GROW OLD

Give Sons and Daughters Chance for Companionship

By Josephine Lowman

Companionship between the two sexes is important at any age. The wish and need for this is emphasized at adolescence.

This is the time when boys and girls first become aware of each other as the opposite sex. The boy or girl you skated with and romped with and climbed trees with suddenly takes on a new personality, and seems somewhat like a stranger. You are apt to be shy and self-conscious when around him or her.

Certainly young men and women of this age need guidance and safeguarding but parents who deny their daughters and sons companionship with young people of the opposite sex and fail to make the home a place where the gang is welcome are making a great mistake.

Teenage is not too young to meet and know many boys and girls. This is the preparation your young daughter or son requires in order to make a wise choice in later life.

If you would like to have my leaflet planned especially for teenagers, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 56, "Popularity." Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

In making jelly when jelly becomes syrupy and refuses to jell because too much sugar has been added, add a little cider vinegar.

Water bottle. Clean the glass water bottle with white vinegar. Shake it a little; then wash in the usual way.

Women's Responsibilities To Citizenship Outlined

"Women of this country have a great responsibility to citizenship.

"Principals of citizenship must be practiced in everyday living. Women spend more time with their children, and their attitudes on citizenship are handed down to the child."

W. M. Haughan said this to Local Council of Women yesterday afternoon. Mr. Haughan is liaison officer for the Citizenship branch of the Canadian Citizenship and immigration department.

He said the question of citizenship was not new. But it took on more importance since the act of 1947 giving us Canadian citizenship status was passed.

"Citizenship branch was organized early in the war when diversity of Canadian backgrounds created interest.

"Universities made surveys and reported their findings. After the war, returning veterans realized what it meant to be a Canadian, so in 1947 the citizenship act was passed.

"In the years following the war the large number of people emigrating to Canada increased the board's work.

"New branches were opened across Canada, but the major problem has been acquiring qualified staff personnel.

"Throughout the country, clubs have been doing the groundwork. They have organized language classes, conducted tours through Canadian businesses and have let the newcomers see machinery of government in operation."

Tel Aviv Wizo Editor Tells of Hadassah Work

"Same wonderful optimism and kindheartedness is evident in Canada today as it was 20 years ago."

So says Mrs. Sylvia Satten-Banin who sees a change in the country but not in its people after an absence of 20 years.

Born in Winnipeg, Mrs. Banin graduated with BA degree from University of Manitoba to become a school teacher. She left Canada to make her home in Tel Aviv, Israel, and today is editor of "WIZO Israel" magazine of Women's International Zionist Organization which has membership of 168,000 women in 58 different countries.

Mrs. Banin who is accompanied by her husband Dr. T. Banin, well known biologist and author, will spend one year away from her adopted country on a cross-Canada lecture tour sponsored by Canadian Hadassah.

This Canadian organization finances and maintains Girls Agricultural School in Nahalal, and Children's Village in Hadassim, Israel.

CHILDREN EDUCATED

Here, child immigrants from Oriental countries, many having suffered great hardships, receive highly advanced education and training in agriculture to fit them for lives of farmers and settlers.

Mrs. Banin is mother of two girls, Tamara at 18 has completed her army service and is now working. Sixteen year old Batia is still at school.

Visit to Edmonton has meant happy re-union for Mrs. Banin; her father Aaron Satten and her brother Morley who are residents in city.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Work Will Cure Widowed Mother's Discontent

DEAR MISS DIX: Until I was 27 I lived at home with my mother who is a widow.

When I got married Mother went to live with a widowed sister. Several days a week, whenever I get a few hours to spare, I rush over and take Mother for a ride, or, if I am going on some business, I take her along for the drive.

She enjoys herself when I am with her or when she can take my little girl out for walks, but if I fail to see her for a day or two she starts crying and gets sullen and often won't speak to me. She has been a good mother to me, I love her dearly and it grieves me to think of her being unhappy. Please tell me what to do

BEWILDERED SON

Answer: Get your mother a job. What she needs is work, something to do that will take up her time, give her new interests and make her feel that she is of some use in the world. You see, all of her life she has been busy. She has been rushed with work keeping house and rearing a family. She has felt herself important because she was necessary to the comfort and well-being of her husband and children. She didn't have time to think about herself. Her days were full and she was happy.

Now all of that is changed. Her husband is dead. Her children married and gone from her. She has no longer even a house to sweep and keep clean and putter around in. She has nothing to do but kill time, and she doesn't know how to do that enjoyably.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

With a Baby You Will Need a Thermometer

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

It's inevitable that some day the baby will act as if he did not feel well and you will want to check his temperature to determine whether he is feverish.

Mothers always take heart when there is no fever for then they feel sure not too much can be amiss.

There should be a rectal thermometer in the household where there is a small baby and a mouth thermometer for the use of the child old enough to hold it in the mouth and not bite down on it.

PRACTICE

It takes a little practice to read a thermometer accurately. The first thing to do it to take the thermometer in hand and give it a brisk shake so as to send the mercury down below the normal mark which is noted on the column by a red arrow.

When you take it out hold the thermometer in the right hand and look back and forth carefully until your eyes discern the end of the silver or red line. Note which whole figure it is nearest and then check the number of small lines above that. Unless you want to leave the thermometer for the doctor to check on, you may then clean it as directed and put it away.

Headache. Saturate a folded handkerchief with white vinegar, place on forehead, repeat when dry.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY, DEC. 16, 1950

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Propitious vibrations greet you this fine day. Be willing and co-operative and you will achieve. Anything sincerely done will credit you. News plays important part.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—If you avoid over-exertion and take things sanely, moderately, you can turn in a good day's effort with good returns. Be open to friendly suggestions, even if you do know the answers.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Excellent influences sponsor large-scale action, essential matters, especially financial. Tolerance, generosity will further your interests no little and make lasting friends.

June 22 to July 22 (Cancer)—Gains in many ways and angles this generous day. Extend your efforts to more yields within your ability. You have many gifts to call on, talents you often ignore—use them!

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Stop to think before acting and you can make great headway this stimulating period. Your stars in favorable array for business, investments, professional work. Be consistent in effort.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Little to worry about if you supply the intellect (and you have that in strength). You can achieve a high goal. Make the most of fine opportunity, disregard irritations.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Go after contracts, new business to better relations of old accounts. Gains warrant more effort. Some interests become less advantageous with evening, so go good work early.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Your planetary vibrations in fine accord with day's best outlook and for straightening out problems. Expect gains from strong effort in essentials, merchandising, sound deals.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—May be reason to make short trips, retrace steps; be cautious and build up wise business contacts. Charity affairs, private interests favored.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—On whole, should be plenty of reason to feel good this enlivening day. Romance, personal affairs hold precious place, but don't make too quick decisions. Tact in any event.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Look through those famous "rose-colored glasses," see all the good you can in whatever your day holds, and you will feel good and permeate the atmosphere with the cheerfulness needed.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Tip-top day if you are "on the beam." Some changes may tend to confuse, so remain calm and nothing really will be upset. Events seem to connect old with new, children with elders.

You Born Today—Innately tire honorable, freedom-loving type. Keen-nosed, enterprising, as a rule generous. Seldom mince words, are outspoken (too much so at time, though do not mean to hurt). Abruptness with little diplomacy is characteristic of your sector, so be forewarned. You are good company; do not waste time; are fond of sports, children, family life. Many lawyers, bankers, salesmen, artists, musicians, journalists in this lot. Be honest with yourself as to riders, and slow down when wise. Burbidge, Jane Austen, Eng. novelist; Beethoven, noted composer

Mother Installs Daughter As New Leader for Lodge

To clean leather furniture, rub equal parts of white vinegar and linseed oil into the leather and polish with soft cloth.

Tobe on Fashion—

The trumpet silhouette caught on so fast that it found most women without the right sort of underpinnings to wear in it. A full-skirted slip or petticoat is too bulky and a slim one looks too narrow and tight under the low flares of the trumpet silhouette dresses.

So obviously what you need is a trumpet slip or a trumpet petticoat—both of which are fitted to well below the hips, and then flared out to give fullness like that of the skirt.

I think the prettiest of these are those in silk satin with inset godets of lace for fullness—in black or navy blue or in colors with matching lace.

Aileen Iris Bibby Wed In Quiet Chapel Ceremony

Carrying a muff of blue velvet garlanded with stephanotis and gardenias Aileen Iris Bibby became bride of William Eric Boyle yesterday.

Chapel of Metropolitan United church was bright with chrysanthemums for ceremony performed by Rev. Reid Vipond in which the bride was given by her brother R. E. Bibby.

She is the daughter of Mrs. M. J. Bibby of Edmonton, and her husband is son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Boyle of Calgary.

Her softly tailored two piece was of winter white and her velvet hat matched her muff.

Mrs. Richard Copithorne was matron of honor. She wore powder blue suit and carried blue and white chrysanthemums.

Geoffrey C. Hamilton attended the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bibby chose turquoise crepe for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were black and she wore deep red carnations.

Mrs. Boyle wore wine ensemble with accessories to tone. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Reception was held at home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Knott, bride's brother-in-law and sister, where Mr. Knott proposed bridal toast.

Leaving on their honeymoon trip, bride wore Teal blue gabardine with grey topcoat and black accessories.

They will return to Edmonton to make their home.

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

Uncle Wiggily, who had his auto sled filled with boys and girls from Hollow Tree School, didn't know what to do. The jolly old rabbit gentleman with the pink, twinkling nose, had started to take the children home from school after a story-telling hour. The snow was coming down thick and fast from the sky. The wind was blowing. It was cold.

But Uncle Wiggily didn't know what to do because his auto sled would not go any farther. There it stood in the snow, half way between Hollow Tree School and the home of the Wibblewobble ducks. From the Wibblewobble duck house he would go to the home of Jackie and Beetle Bow Wow, then to the home of Nannie and Billie Waggtail and so on until he had left all the children at their right homes.

Uncle Wiggily also was going to leave the Lady Mouse Teacher at her boarding house. Then the rabbit gentleman was going to keep on to his own hollow stump bungalow, where his children would get out.

"Well, Wiggy, what seems to be wrong?" asked Mr. Whitewash the jolly polar bear. Mr. Whitewash had been running alongside Uncle Wiggily's auto sled. The bear was jingling a string of bells around his neck. "Why didn't you keep on in the auto sled, Wiggy?"

"I just can't, Whitey," answered Mr. Longears.

"Why not, Wiggy? Is your sled stuck in the snow drift?"

"No White. There are no snow drifts here but there is plenty of snow. And more is coming down all the while. I just don't know why my auto sled won't go."

"Will we have to stay here all night?" asked Bunty the little orphan rabbit. "I feel very cold."

"I am quite sure we shall not have to stay here all night, Bunty, my dear," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Maybe we'll have to stay here until after Christmas," barked Jackie Bow Wow. "If we do stay here until Christmas Eve, I guess maybe Santa Claus would give us a pull."

"We shall not be here that long, Jackie," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I wish I knew why my auto will not go."

"Have you enough gas, Wiggy" asked Mr. White.

"Oh, dear, me. That must be it!" exclaimed the rabbit uncle.

"I will plow through the snow to the nearest gas station and bring back some gas," offered Mr. Whitewash.

Suddenly there was heard the sound of

"CAW! CAW! CAW"

"Hurray! Now I know how to get gas quickly!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "Many black crow birds are flying this way. I will ask them to fly through the air quickly and bring us gas. Ho, Crows Will you do that?"

"CAW! CAW CAW!... cried the crows.

What did they answer? I will tell you tomorrow if the dishwashing machine will please iron the clothes so the radio can go to the movies with the television set.

Falls are the No. 1 accident killer around the home, according to the Alberta Safety Council.

Keep the ice off outside steps and walks.

I PLEDGE:

To stop and look before I step
And cross with light on green;
Go to the corner of each road
Just so I may be seen.
To not run out between parked cars
Or play on any street.
"Always Be Careful" is to me
A motto I will keep.

New City Co. Strikes Oil

Another name was added yesterday to the growing list of Edmonton oil companies as Vicalta Petroleums Ltd. announced.

Oil has been struck in two porous zones between 5,333 and 5,370, the company announced.

The well is in the south extension of the Leduc field, currently one of the hot spots in Alberta oil.

Location is lsd 6-21-49-26-Ww, slightly over a mile south of the Okalta wells. Until recently, the Okalta wells were regarded to be on the south of the field. Several wells have recently opened up this end of the field and no limits are in sight.

Vicalta is backed by Victoria, B.C., and Edmonton interests.

Airlift to Aid Santa In Supplying Arctic

Several tons of Christmas dinner, mail and presents will be airlifted this year to outposts in Canada's Arctic.

Santa's little helpers in the project to brighten the Yuletide of army, RCMP and department of transport men in the northlands will be crews of the RCAF's C-47 freight aircraft.

First of the Christmas special flights will leave Edmonton Dec. 15, bound via Yellowknife for Cambridge Bay on the icebound Arctic shores of Victoria Island.

Four thousand pounds of turkey, plum pudding, parcels and other Christmas freight will be delivered to RCMP and department of transport members there.

XMAS FLYER

The Cambridge Bay Christmas flyer will be manned by Fl.-Lt. N. Keen, captain; F. O. W. D. Kostiuk, co-pilot; F. O. Vincent, navigator; F. O. Law, radio officer, and LAC French, crew chief.

The festive season deliveries to Aklavik at the mouth of the Mackenzie River will be made by a plane based at Fort Nelson which will need several runs to land the 8,000 pounds scheduled.

Most of the supplies are consigned to the Army Signal Corps and this year's delivery of the Christmas goods marks the first time a plane of the size has been able to land at the Arctic outpost.

Most of the white dwellers in the north are planning on sharing with the Eskimos in accordance with time honored custom of the area.

Roads Icy In North

Icy conditions are prevalent on most northern Alberta highways, according to the latest road report of the Alberta Motor Association.

The Alaska highway has the worst ice conditions but otherwise is in "fair to good winter travelling condition."

Ice is also reported in sections of the Peace River highways, Highway 14 to Wainwright, Highway 16 to Vegreville and Lloydminster, the Jasper Trail and Coalspur road south from Edson, Wetaskiwin to Camrose and the Saskatchewan border and Leduc to Rimbey.

SPECIAL COLORS TALKED FOR CITY VEHICLES

City officials are considering painting all civic cars and trucks a distinctive color.

"We want citizens to have pride of ownership," Acting Mayor William Hawrelak said yesterday.

Some department heads would like to have their own departmental colors, while others feel there should be uniformity all through the civic service, he added.

No color or combination of colors has yet been agreed upon. There are about 150 city-owned trucks and about 50 cars.

Glenora Plan Celebrations

The Glenora Community League will celebrate its first anniversary on Dec. 21 at the club house, 156 street and 105 avenue.

There will be skating for all ages, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., with treats for the children and coffee for adults.

Selkirk Plans Hotel Extension

Selkirk Hotel today took out a city building permit for $100,000 alterations.

The city landmark at Jasper and 101 street will install a women's beer parlor in the space now occupied by Johnson's Cafe.

The cafe will move to smaller quarters farther west on Jasper.

C. H. Whitham is contractor for the alterations, and Dewar Cawston and Stevenson are the architects.

Closer Relations Seen In Unions

Alberta, Saskatchewan Farm Union Planning Co-operation

Alberta and Saskatchewan farmers' unions will co-operate more closely in the future, particularly on the matter of farm price levels.

The two unions are in agreement that something will have to be done soon regarding adjustments of farm prices in ratio to prices in other fields, Henry G. Young, newly-elected president of Farmers' Union of Alberta stated today.

Mr. Young was commenting on the annual convention of Saskatchewan Farmers' Union, which ends today at Saskatoon, and which he attended.

"I am very satisfied with the outcome of Saskatchewan meeting," Mr. Young said. "They have a fast-growing union and we feel that it will be of great assistance to us in the future."

SETTLEMENT WANTED

Mr. Young stated that both the Saskatchewan and Alberta groups are pressing for a satisfactory settlement soon on the five-year wheat pool.

The federal government is expected to make final payment to farmers in January, he said.

Mr. Young declared that the Alberta union is still awaiting word on its legal position regarding removal from office of two of its directors.

NO OFFICIAL ACTION

Meantime, no official action will be taken regarding the two directors, Frank Maricle, Hamlin, and Ray Garneau, Wetaskiwin, he said.

Civil Servants Seek Change In Work Week

Alberta civil servants are expected to make a formal bid for a five-day work week when a delegation from the Civil Service Association meets the Alberta cabinet next Wednesday.

The association's previous attempts to have the five-day work week introduced in the Alberta civil service have been unsuccessful.

At present the majority of civil servants work 36 hours in five and a half days a week.

Board Meets

Annual conference between the University of Alberta board of governors and the Alberta cabinet will be held at the legislative building on Monday.

Mr. Maricle and Mr. Garneau were asked to resign following the group's annual convention earlier this month.

Basis for the action is a resolution passed at the convention that no known Communists may occupy directors' posts in the organization, Mr. Young said.

Jasper Chamber Hears Plea For Roads and Accommodation

JASPER, Dec. 15—W. H. Thomson, field supervisor of the Alberta Travel Bureau, department of economic affairs, was guest speaker at Jasper Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday and showed several films dealing with vacationing in Alberta.

Mr. Thomson spoke of the gratifying increase in tourist traffic this year and stressed the need for good roads, more cabins and good food.

"These are the three things the tourists demand and it is worth our while to see that they get what they want" The tourist business is everybody's business" said Mr. Thomson.

In reviewing information gained through questionaires and information bureau registers several items concerned Jasper were read. One was: "Our greatest disappointment was not being able to drive to Mt. Robson." Other helpful criticisms were "improve the road between Jasper and Banff", "Put up more signs," and one truly American remark was "Please make your coffee stronger."

Val Kulak, president of Jasper Chamber of Commerce, introduced Mr. Thomson and expressed the appreciation of the members for the interesting evening.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce Reports

Growth in Commerce, Agriculture, Industry Aids National Defence

● President sees Canadians facing three major tasks: 1) to integrate economic stability with military preparedness; 2) to co-operate internationally to mitigate the basic causes of world unrest; 3) to expand our world trade.

STANLEY M. WEDD, President, addressing the Annual Meeting of The Canadian Bank of Commerce in Toronto, said in part:

THE course of events that we have witnessed in recent months will mark as historically significant the year now drawing to a close. Yet the favourable developments that have taken place in Canada since we last met are overshadowed by the extremely disturbing possibilities of the hostilities in the Far East. Two distinct trends have emerged within the past year—the hesitation in business activity which was beginning to appear during the first half of the year and which was arrested by the outbreak and impact of war in Korea; and the upturn which followed. The latter phase directs our attention to the significant fact that an expanding economy such as ours responds quickly to outside influences.

At the present time we are by no means on a war basis, yet we are not all employed in peaceful pursuits. The degree to which we may alter this existing division in the economy depends upon forces beyond our control.

General Economic Patterns

First I would note the latest official estimate of the value of our production for 1950, which is seventeen and a half billion dollars. This is an increase of about fourteen hundred million over last year and is, in relation to the 1944 figure, approximately twelve billion dollars, indicative of the expansion that has been taking place over recent years. Although this increase is measured in fluctuating dollar values it does represent a higher rate of increase than at any other period in our history.

Over the post-war years there has been an intensive capital investment in the industries of Canada. Between 1945 and the close of this year an estimated twelve billion dollars will have been invested. This is in addition to the heavy wartime expansion which was necessary to meet the demands of war. This rate of investment shows little sign of slackening.

The labour force at the present time is at peak levels. In fact in some areas there is developing a shortage of employable persons, and this at a time when we are embarking on an armament program of some magnitude and are already engaged in important development of our natural resources. It would seem, therefore, to be a matter of real urgency that the labour force be expanded, and since this can be done to only a very limited extent from the manpower resources now available, the immediate implementation of a well-integrated immigration policy would seem to be the proper solution.

Agriculture

Over all, this year has been a good one for agriculture. Current reports indicate that the Western wheat crop will be almost one hundred million bushels larger than a year ago although an unusually large percentage of it will be of low grade. Yields of feed grains are also above those of last year. In the Eastern Provinces and in British Columbia good harvests were general in almost all lines of farming endeavour.

Mining

Turning now to mining, attention continues to be focused on oil and iron, each of which is expected to play a prominent role in maintaining our present high level of business activity.

With the Leduc and Redwater discoveries, proven oil reserves are now well above the billion barrel mark and capital at the rate of three million dollars a week is being invested in development and exploration. In addition, other expenditures for refineries and pipe-lines to be completed within the next year total more than one hundred and twenty-five million dollars. In all, these investments in the oil industry account for roughly ten per cent of Canada's non-governmental capital investment program for 1950. The 1,150-mile trunk pipeline to Superior, Wisconsin, is completed and already oil has begun to move via this pipeline to refineries at Regina and Gretna.

The discovery to date of the four hundred million tons proven reserves of iron ore in Eastern Canada will place Canada among the world's top ranking iron ore producers. The development of the area due to its inaccessibility will take some time and will be costly. However, the contract for the railway into the area recently has been allotted and construction is to begin before the turn of the year. It is estimated that capital expenditures for this railway, for the construction of a hydro-electric power plant, harbour facilities and rolling stock may be in the neighborhood of two hundred million dollars and we gather that to justify an outlay of this magnitude at least ten million tons annually will have to be taken out.

Manufacturing

Several of the most important branches of the Canadian manufacturing industry have created new production records within the past year and the industry as a whole is currently operating at the highest level of the year to date and over five per cent above that in October 1949. Consumption of electrical energy is a good gauge of industrial activity and the increase of seven per cent during the elapsed part of the present year reflects fairly well the general position. The completion of new central electric installations within the past twelve months has made this increase possible but demand for power continues to keep pace with and, indeed, exceed that available.

International Trade

This year we have witnessed a decided change in trade activities. Our surplus in merchandise trade of two hundred and twelve million dollars a year in the period 1935-39 and of even larger amounts in the post-war years has been replaced by a deficit of fifteen million dollars at present annual rates. Since the round of devaluations a year ago last September, which had the effect of increasing the price of Canadian goods in countries which devalued more than ten per cent, Canada's trade surplus with the United Kingdom has declined. At the same time, a rising level of income in the United States, coupled with the attractions of somewhat lower Canadian prices, has served to increase our exports to that country.

The ability of Canada to cushion the effect of a decrease in exports to the sterling countries by an increase in exports to the United States is another evidence of the adaptability of the Canadian economy. At this time our newly-developed trading pattern is operating under the forces of the free dollar market and it is hoped that the unbalanced position which has existed in world trade under conditions of rigid control will steadily decrease.

The Free Dollar

The development of a new trade pattern has caused attention to be directed to both the short and the long run possibilities in the Canadian economy. Total investment by non-residents in Canada at the end of 1949 amounted to nearly eight billion dollars, of which the greater part, some five billion nine hundred million, was held by Americans. Since then the continued attractiveness of Canadian investments has brought in additional investment funds from the United States. This inflow, which was particularly heavy in the three months after June last, indicated for the most part a growing realization by Americans of Canadian investment opportunities. Yet this inflow stimulated inflationary pressures in Canada and some method was necessary whereby inflationary pressure engendered by speculation about the value of the Canadian dollar could be relieved, while, at the same time, the beneficial flow of capital for investment and development could be maintained. From the choices available to cope with the situation, the decision to permit the Canadian dollar to find its own price in terms of other currencies was one with many implications and much to commend it.

Preparedness Programs

For the first time in our history, this year witnessed the meeting of Parliament for the purpose of considering an extensive military program unaccompanied by a declaration of war. The supplementary budget which evolved from that meeting was significant in that it brought more clearly into focus our responsibilities as a member of the United Nations. It also emphasized our role as a signatory to the North Atlantic Defence Pact.

In the light of existing conditions, the fiscal provisions of this supplementary budget might best be described as precautionary, and the extent to which they may have to be expanded will be determined by the outcome of the critical situation in which the world now finds itself. For the present, our cash commitments for defence under the latest budget, both for ourselves and on behalf of our partners of the North Atlantic Defence Pact, amount to eight hundred and fifty-six million dollars which, together with defence expenditures authorized in the main estimates earlier in the year, bring the total commitment for defence to approximately one billion four hundred and twenty million dollars, or about eight per cent of the estimated Gross National Product. High levels of National Income during the first nine months of the year had resulted in a sizable budgetary surplus on the then existing bases of taxation, but in order to cover the foreseeable cash disbursements for defence during the remainder of the year, the Minister of Finance found it necessary to impose additional taxation upon corporations and upon certain classes of goods used by the public.

Military Integration

It is not unlikely that history will record the Washington Agreement which was signed in October of this year as an outstanding occurrence. The signing of the Agreement by Canadian and American representatives in Washington does more than reiterate the principles contained in the Hyde Park Declaration of 1941. The new Agreement reaffirms the principle of co-ordination in defence purchasing and allocation of materials between the two countries. It also indicates that, insofar as defence expenditures are concerned, problems of foreign exchange and restriction of purchasing ability which hindered co-ordination in the post-war period may well be avoided.

The Outlook

We enter into a preparedness program under conditions far different from those of the early days of World War II. We know that manpower and resources are being fully utilized and consequently the diversion of men and material for military production is bound to cause strains. The expansion of our economy during the past year makes it possible to meet the requirements immediately in sight without distorting the pattern of civilian production; should we find it necessary to expand military commitments beyond those recently established then inflationary stresses will become still more insistent.

Events of recent weeks have served to emphasize the uncertainties that lie ahead. Undoubtedly three major tasks face us: to ensure a continuation of economic stability under conditions of military preparedness; full co-operation and assistance towards the mitigation of the basic causes of unrest and war; and also the expansion of trade which is basic to the maintenance of our well-being. These are challenging objectives, yet the record shows ability and courage in facing other equally difficult problems that have arisen in the course of our history.

JAMES STEWART, Vice-President and General Manager, commenting on the Bank's operations during the past year said in part:

THE substantial progress of the Bank in the past year by way of the growth in assets and earnings is reflected in the eighty-fourth annual Balance Sheet now before you. (Highlights of the statement are reproduced below.)

Taxation

On the tax program Mr. Stewart said: Apart from the fact that taxation must raise the revenues necessary to finance much of the defence program, taxation in general is an important fiscal means for "siphoning off" purchasing power. While the tax structure should be so arranged as to assist in restraining inflationary tendencies, yet at the same time it should not hamper or retard the industrial program necessary to meet military and domestic requirements.

Under certain economic conditions some taxes can have effects opposite to those originally intended. The choice of taxes and their rates therefore loom large in our planning. I know that in certain quarters the excess profits tax has its adherents!—yet, because of its tendency towards encouraging unnecessary spending, it has, to my mind, particularly under conditions of full employment, an inflationary potential. A further and I think equally important argument against such form of taxation is that in our economy, part of which is in the developmental stage, every encouragement should be given to expanding new businesses and industries, yet a tax arbitrarily based on what are termed excess profits well might discriminate against the smaller risk-taking industries, many of which require additional capital to expand their plant and equipment and produce needed goods. Retention of profits is, after all, one of the best methods of capital expansion. Should we be on the verge of a heavier tax program—and this is a definite likelihood—then serious consideration should be given to setting the rates of the corporation income tax at sensible levels.

In the long run this might well be a better revenue-raising arrangement than the application of an excess profits tax. At the same time this policy could avoid the weaknesses and the inflationary potential inherent in an excess profits tax.

Staff

It is again my privilege to express my thanks to the staff for their co-operation. The all-round increase in the Bank's business which has taken place is indicative of the team-play that exists in all the branches of the Bank. The growth of the Bank as shown by the Balance Sheet is not something that just happens—it represents hard work—and the progress made during the past year is a tribute to the loyalty of the staff and to their constant vigilance in the interests of the Bank and the public we serve. I cannot speak too forcibly in this respect—and in taking this opportunity of expressing my appreciation to the members of the staff I am sure I am conveying to them the thanks of all the shareholders as well for their praiseworthy contribution to the welfare of the Bank.

NEW DELHI, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Copies of a new map printed by Communist China show a huge section of India's rich Assam Valley and a part of Northern Burma, including the war-famous Stilwell Road, as Chinese.

The maps are not marked "official," but Indian officials said they presumably show what Chinese Communist officials consider are the "proper frontiers."

Russia Tries To Get Wolfram Out Of China

HONG KONG—(UP)—Russia is increasing its efforts to get wolfram ore out of south China, according to reports from Canton.

The reports said teams of Soviet prospectors, each with an armed guard of Chinese Communist troops, are operating in Kwangtung and Kwangsi Provinces looking for new deposits of the strategic mineral.

Wolfram ore is the source of tungsten, which is essential for hardening steel, making armor plate and other armaments where resistance to high heat and pressure are required.

South China, until it came under Communist occupation, was one of the principal suppliers of wolfram ore. The U.S. Department of Commerce reported recently that since the Communists took over China, all supplies of wolfram ore from that country have ceased.

Truman Likely to Ask For State of Emergency

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—President Truman calls on Americans tonight to unite in greater sacrifices behind the critical effort to build up the free world's military might.

The tempo of that effort already is being speeded up rapidly, but members of Congress and others are demanding definite manpower and production goals.

It was disclosed officially today that the government had picked a site near Paducah, Ky., for a $500,000,000 atomic energy project — the second expansion of the atomic program to be announced within three weeks.

And Army Secretary Frank Pace was disclosed to have told Congress that the $41,841,000,000 voted or sought for the military establishment this year probably won't be enough. The latest request for $16,844,000,000 had been outmoded before Congress could act on it.

Truman, speaking on the radio at 8:30 p.m. MST, plans to outline the home-front sacrifices he thinks are necessary to meet the grave crisis of military defeats in Korea and the threat of new Communist aggression elsewhere. His speech will be carried by the Trans-Canada and Dominion networks of the CBC.

A declaration of national emergency—to speed up military contract letting and put the country nearer to a war basis—seemed certain either as a prelude or aftermath of the president's speech.

This could be accompanied or followed by selective price and wage controls. Most speculation was that their application will be gradual while personnel is being built up to administer them.

Administration officials said the declaration of an emergency may be quickly followed by calls for a 4,000,000-man army and an eventual expenditure of $100,000,000,000 a year for defence.

Coalmen Get Timely Tips

CALGARY, Dec. 15—(CP)—Alberta coal operators were advised to "smarten up" as the opening session of a two-day meeting of the provincial Industrial Development Board got under way here yesterday.

Ronald Maitland of Edmonton, director of the board, said the operator should "smarten up" and produce coal that would be able to compete with American coal in the Ontario market.

Mr. Maitland said that Ontario coal consumers have complained of dirt in the Alberta coal as well as suggesting that Alberta coal operators provide a list of technical specifications with their coal as American operators do.

R. H. Moore of Edmonton, deputy minister of economic affairs and chairman of the board, said the board will consider the subject of industrial development areas when it meets in camera today.

HUNGNAM, Northeast Korea, Dec. 15 — (UP) — A young American GI struggled back to his billet with a huge Christmas package.

His mother paid $24 to ship it to him by air.

It was a bushel of apples.

Cease-Fire Group Works

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The new United Nations cease-fire committee began its Korean peace mission by inviting United States delegate Ernest A. Gross to a private luncheon conference.

Gross has been designated to represent the United States in the truce negotiations. Today's meeting was arranged to get the U.S. views before approaching the Chinese Communist envoy, Gen. Wu Hsiu-Chuan.

The three-man committee which includes L. B. Pearson of Canada has not yet arranged a meeting with Wu, informed quarters said.

The first move came amid reports that the cease-fire group might send a representative to Peiping, if necessary. No decision has been taken on this question yet, however, it was said.

Meanwhile, the 1950 session of the General Assembly wound up all business except the China-Korea problem. It recessed at 12:09 p.m. EST, subject to call of the president. The session opened Sept. 19.

National Cordasun No. 2 Kick-Off Is Reported

National Cordasun No. 2, in the Spring Coulee area of southern Alberta, kicked off at 3:30 yesterday afternoon after a 5,000-gallon acid treatment and flowed for two hours into the sump. At 5:30 the line was turned into the tank. Last night the well produced 300 barrels of clean oil on restricted flow.

This was confirmed by William Roberts, formerly district geologist for Union Oil Company for the state of Montana. Mr. Roberts went with National Petroleums as manager of field operations Nov. 25.

The Cordasun No. 2 marked a new method of completion for Spring Coulee-Del Bonita wells. It was drilled in with a spudder, with casing set at the top of the line, and then acidized.

SAFEST TYPE

At the well-site last night Mr. Roberts said: "I would say this is the safest type of completion but rotary completions properly handled are possible."

He said indications were that the reservoir was of substantial size and a substantial number of wells would be completed.

The well is on a full section on an interest deal by Cordasun with National. The section is in the centre of a 10,000-acre lease block wholly owned by National.

Roberts said that Cordasun No. 1, the first test could probably be remedied, but might not be brought back to the extent it could match the No. 2 which offsets it to the south.

STRUCTURE TREND

Roberts said that National Centennial No. 2 12 miles to the northwest on the same structural trend produced 75 barrels on pump Thursday on its fourth successive day of production. Production had risen a little each day from 68 barrels last Sunday.

The Centennial No. 2 was an offset to Centennial No. 1 which has been producing small quantities of oil. The only difference between the two wells is more intensive acidization in the No. 2.

All Spring Coulee wells have penetrated about 50 feet into the Madison oil zone. The porosity has averaged around eight per cent. The porosity is thus better than Redwater, the zone thicker than Leduc. The permeability in all wells has been relatively low, keeping the flow rate slow.

★ ★ ★

Waterglen contacted the D-3 today 180 feet higher than the Globe Emjay well six miles south. A good core is reported to have been taken.

Globe Emjay did hit D-3 but about 40 feet below the water line as established in the Westlock well not far away.

★ ★ ★

Redwater Leaseholds Campbell No. 9 most northwesterly well in the field hit good pay dirt yesterday with a rise of 2,100 feet of oil in interval 3,698 to 3,708.

A previous test in the same sand had given a rise of 500 feet of oil on Wednesday. Officials said the No. 9 looks like a top producer for the field.

The oil was struck in the second Campbell sand. Officials said the well would drill on and test both the third and fourth sands. Big gas flows were recorded in the top sand.

BIRD'S A BIRD FOR 'A THAT

OGDEN, Utah—(UP)—Walt Summers claims he's proved his point that hunters will shoot at anything, anywhere. During the pheasant season Summers took his stuffed pheasant from his house and perched it on a fence post.

At the end of an eight-hour stretch, the stuffed bird had been blown to bits.

Summers estimated that more than 50 hunters took shots at it.
